PREFACE.

The Brahma Vidya (Hindu Theology) comprises the following subjects —

- I Vedas (Shrutis),
- II Darshana Sutras (Indian Philosophy),
- III Smritis;
- IV Itihasas,
- V Puranas

2 The Vedas—There are four Vedas viz, Rig, Yajur, Sama and Atharva and each of them is three-fold —

- (a) Mantras or Sanhitas,
- (b) Karmakandas or Brahmanas, and
- (c) Gyana Kanda or Upanishads (including Aranyakas)

All these collectively as well as separately are spoken of as Shruti (heard or revealed) while the Sanhitas alone are generally called Vedas

3 The Rig Veda Sanhita is the oldest record of the Aryan thought. It contains about 1,000 mantras or hymns composed by various sages and addressed to different gods for attainment of manifold objects of life. But all these gods and deified natural elements are the names and manifestations of one Supreme Lord who is the Creator, Supporter and Destroyer of the World and is all in all (I—164). It is a religious book of prayers mainly but alludes to some rules of good conduct and also refers to the caste system as evolved out of the body of the Lord. The age of this Veda is put by Lokmanya Tilak as 4500 B. C.

4. The Yajur Veda details the sacrifices which represent the creation of the world. The Supreme Lord first created Brahma (Hiranyagarbha or golden egg) out of chaos and from it sprang up the whole universe animate as well as inanimate.

Man is also enjoined to perform sacrifice for propagation and continuance of mankind.

5. The Sama Veda contains short hymns culled from the Rig Veda for recitation at sacrificial and other ceremonial occasions. They are mostly addressed to Agni, Indra and Soma (moon) etc.

6. The Atharva Veda is of later period and was not regarded as Veda at first as the earlier Scriptures, Buddhistic works and Gita itself mention only three Vedas. Half of the Atharva Veda deals only with magic, spells, imprecations, curses to evil spirits for personal and vindictive objects, also formulas for birth, marriage and funeral ceremonies. The other half like the Rig Veda is devoted to prayers addressed to the Supreme Brahma and for that reason this Veda is also called Brahma Vidya.

7. The Vedic references in the Gita are noted below:—

II—42 to 46, 52—53, III—11 and 12.

VII—20 to 22, VIII—28,

IX—5 to 24, X—21, 35,

XI—6, 22, 48, 53, XIII—4,

XV—1, XVI—23, 24,

XVII—5, 6, 11, 13 to 23, 28 XVIII—5, 6.

The Gita has nothing but the highest praise for the Sanhita and Gyara Kanda of the Vedas, but it distinguishes the sacrifices and other Vedic rituals performed with a desire for fruit and those performed without attachment and desire. It deprecates the former as causing bondage and recommends the latter as leading to liberation. The Gita regards the deities as manifestations of the Supreme Lord and their worship as leading to happiness and success in life. But such reward is temporary, while the worship and devotion of the Supreme Lord lead to permanent bliss, liberation and salvation for ever.

8. The Brahmanas are only 4 viz :—Satha Pattha, Gopatha, Attriya and Taittiriya.

Sathapatha is the chief of the Brahmanas which deal with rituals of sacrifice, interpret important Vedic terms and passages, and prescribe rules of good conduct or ethics as godliness etc.

9. The Upanishads number as many as 108 as enumerated in the Muktī Upanishad, out of which 12 only are regarded as the principal and ancient ones and all the rest as minor and later ones. The twelve principal Upanishads are :—

1 Ishavas, 2 Kena, 3 Isa, 4 Kat, 5 Iti, 6 Asht, 7 Shukla, 8 And, 9 And, 10 And, 11 And, 12 And.

Balli, 6 Swateshwatra, 7 Chhandogya, 8 Bṛīṣṇaranyak, 9 Aitarīya, 10 Taittirīya, 11 Prashna and 12 Kaushitki

The first six of these are in verse and the last six are in prose. The Gita is called the milk of the Upanishads as it is pervaded by their spirit and their verses and lines are scattered in it like inlaid jewels in a gold ornament.

The teachings of the Upanishads are very lofty, and soul inspiring and contain the highest philosophical, religious and ethical principles.

10 The chief doctrines of the Upanishads are outlined below:—

The Lord is all in all. He is in everything and everything is in Him. Gods and all beings are His manifestations and the names of the deities are the names of His attributes. He is Brahma, Viṣṇu and Mahesha (Creator, Preserver and Destroyer), also all that is past, present and future. He is Sat, Chit and Anand. The Nature (Prakṛiti) acts under His control and the universe is His body. He is the spirit of all and everything moves and exists by Him. He is gracious, benevolent and attainable by meditation, devotion and goaliness. He alone without a second existed at first and created the whole universe. He is the Supreme Reality and His knowers attain to salvation (Moksha).

The Atma (Soul) is a portion of the Lord, clothed with body and senses. It possesses the character of the Supreme Lord, but when invested with a body it is deluded by the qualities (gunas) of Nature and considers itself through delusion as doer of action and enjoyer of pleasure and pain. It dwells in the heart but is not perceived through the senses. It is released from delusion by attainment of knowledge. The Jivatma is thus both qualified and unqualified, doer and non-doer, manifest and non-manifest, enjoyer and non-enjoyer, Sat and Asat.

The Maya is the illusive power of the Lord. It affects all beings and is the cause of birth, death and creation. The world has been created by the mere will of the Lord through Maya and Nature. Creation is thus the Lord's sacrifice which is a divine institution. Death is the desertion of the body by the soul and Moksha is release from rebirth and merging in the Lord.

Sleep is the merging of the senses in the mind and cessation of their functions. Dream is perceiving of objects directly by the soul during sleep.

Sound sleep is the resting of the mind in soul when it perceives only happiness. Peaceful sleep is the resting of the soul in the Lord when it attains to supreme peace.

Action should be performed without attachment and desires, with the mind under control, for attainment of knowledge and salvation.

All actions yield fruits and no one can escape the fruits of the actions performed by him.

There are three paths to travel after death

(a) The Daiva or knowledge path which leads to Salvation, (b) the Pitri or good action path which leads to temporary happiness and then rebirth and (c) the evil path which leads to lower birth as animal etc,

Performance of sacrifice, austerities, gifts and other good acts pleases the gods and purifies the heart There should be no theft, murder, adultery, covetousness, hatred, malice, greed, anger & cruelty Truth and service of elders lead to bliss and success everywhere Sensual pleasures should be avoided

There are four castes Brahmanas, Kshatriyas, Vaishyas & Shudras, and there are also four stages of life, viz:—student, house-holder, recluse and ascetic All should perform their respective duties and courses of life

The Upanishads are Brahma vidya and are based on the Vedas and truth and as noted above they are interwoven and form the very basis of the Gita

11. The Darshana Sutras are the Six Systems of Indian Philosophy viz, 1 Vedānta, 2 Sāṅkhya, 3 Mīmāṃsā 4 Yoga, 5 Nyāya and 6 Vaiśeṣika The fundamental principles of these systems are outlined in the introductions of the first six chapters of this book and therefore only the distinguishing features and characteristics are dealt with here

12 The Vedānta also called Brahma Sūtra and Uttara mīmāṃsā is the work of Baḍṛāyana (Vyas) It is the doctrine of one Supreme Reality as all in all without a second and all else as the product of the Maya the illusive power of the Lord (called Prakriti or Brahma (Mahat)). All the creation or the universe is the product of this Maya (Illusion). Jivatma is a reflection of the Lord appearing as separate and invested with body and senses (name and form) through the Maya but really having all the characteristics of the Supreme Lord. The devotion or Bhakti of the Lord leads to knowledge and dispells this delusion. The Maya is dissolved and the Jivatma then realizes its true nature as the Ultimate Reality.

13 The Sankhya system has been founded by the sage Kapila. It is a gospel of two separate entities of Prakriti or Pradhan (Nature) and Purusha or Atma (Soul). The one (Prakriti) is the chief doer and creator while the other (Purusha) is passive spectator or perceiver. The Prakriti acts through Gunas (qualities) consisting of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas which cause all pleasure, pain, and ignorance. The universe is created by Prakriti in combination with Purusha who is affected by the Gunas. There are many and separate Purushas. The renunciation (Sanyas) of the world leads to knowledge by which the Atma knowing its distinction from the Prakriti and its qualities is liberated from them and then the latter ceases to act.

14 • The Mimansa system is founded by the sage Jaimini and prescribes the Upasana (worship) path. It deals with sacrifice, rituals and interpretations of the Vedic passages relating thereto. It thus takes its stand on the Vedas and teaches that it is only by performing sacrifices that one attains to heaven and salvation and that everything depends on sacrifice which is all in all.

15. The Yoga System is the treatise of Patanjali. According to this System, the Yoga is the control of the mental functions and is to be attained by Abhyas (practice), Vairag (renunciation) and Meditation. It is assisted by (a) Yama (b) Nyam, (c) Asan, (d) Pranayam, (e) Pratihara, (f) Dhyan, (g) Dharna and (h) Samadhi. The Soul is distinct from the Supreme Lord. The one is free from all distractions, active and all knowing while the other is pure intelligence, manifold and enjoyer of sense objects.

Success in Yoga removes ignorance or leads to knowledge and union with the Supreme Lord (Nirvan). Distractions (mental feelings and ignorance) are caused by the residue of past karmas (virtue and vice) whose fruit is birth, life, pleasure and pain etc.

16 The Nyaya System is the logical philosophy of Gautma sage. It propounds that God is separate from Soul. The one is the creator, all powerful, and all knowing and rewarder of fruits and free from pain and evil. The other (Soul) is manifold, eternal, and subject to transmigration. It is the seer, knower, performer of actions, and enjoyer of fruits. The universe and all things are collections of Atoms set in motion by God. Birth is the assuming of bodies by the Soul and is caused as fruit of previous actions. and mind is an agent of Soul for the perception of objects through senses, and intellect, pleasure and pain etc., are the attributes of Soul. The knowledge of truth leads to supreme bliss and release from ignorance, birth and activity. The practice of meditation leads to true knowledge. Thus while Vedanta, Mimansa, Sankhya and Yoga propound different doctrines and principles, the Nyaya philosophy is on the lines of Yoga system and has no distinctive features of its own except the advancement of the Atomic theory and the metaphysical discourses.

The Vaisheshika philosophy follows the Nyaya system and has no distinctive doctrine of its own

17 The Gita refutes none of these systems and its Karma Yoga doctrine is a happy blending of them all

It contains Bhakti (devotion of Vedant), worship-action (Upasana of Mimansa), renunciation of desires and aversions (Sanyas of Sankhya), control of mind and senses (Patanjali Yoga). It regards the Supreme Lord as all in all and the Prakriti as agent, Maya as Illusive power of the Lord, composed of the three Gunas (qualities) of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas and deluding the Jivatma who is a portion of the Lord but appearing as separate, manifold and enjoying sense objects and ignorant of its true character as Supreme Reality.

All Beings and Universe consist of 25 essences

5 Great elements of earth, ether, water, air & fire

3 Inner faculties of intellect, egoism, and unmanifest (nature)

11 Senses consisting of five wisdom organs, five action organs and mind

5 Sense objects of sight, smell, hearing, taste and touch,

1 Jivatma

Performance of actions with attachment causes bondage, while performance of actions without attachment and desires leads to knowledge and salvation.

18 The Smritis or Dharma Shastras are moral codes dealing with the conduct of life and administration of civil and criminal justice. There are 18 Smritis of which the chief one is named after Manu the father of mankind. It is based on ancient customs and usages. It describes creation on the Vedic Hiranyagarbha theory. It recognises the four castes and four stages of life and prescribes duties and liabilities for all the divisions and orders. It recommends rituals, worship of gods, pilgrimage and making of gifts, and lays down rules of good conduct, ethics and religion. It allows meat, drink and sexual enjoyment but makes their avoidance more praiseworthy. Polygamy is allowed to men but women are ever to worship and serve their husbands as gods and not allowed to remain idle and exercise any freedom. They are only to be housewives and bearers of children. There is no reference of this Smṛiti or its doctrines in the Gita which lays down its own rules of good conduct and ethics.

19 The Puranas are 18 in number and the Bhagavat Purana is the most important and popular of them all. The Puranas have similar characteristics and topics, viz.—

Creation of nature, elements, gods, sages and other beings; Manwantaras or narration of Manus and their reigns, description of gods, sages, Sclav and Lunai races and other royal families, stories of heroes as Prahlada and Dhruva etc., descriptions of Brahma, Viṣṇu and Mahesh, histories of Rama, Krishna and other incarnations, duties of the four castes and four stages of life, rules of good conduct, accounts of heaven, hell and places of pilgrimage, and geography of earth etc.

The Puranas are thus religious and ethical books and are on the lines of Mahabharata (excluding the Great War). But while the great epic (Mahabharata) seems to be the work of the master mind Vyasa, the Puranas have the appearance of the prize-essays written by his disciples—the prize winner being the composer of Śhrī Bhagvat.

The Puranas admit to be subsequent to the Mahabharata and they have nothing but the highest praise and respect for the Gita whose verses and passages are freely incorporated in them. The supreme nature and greatness of the Ultimate Reality are applied by them to both Vishnu and Shiva, according to the sect and faith favoured by each 20 The Itihāsas comprise only the two epics of Ramayana and Mahabharata. The Ramayana is the epic poem of the saint Valmiki and it describes the war waged by Rama against the demons to protect the sages and to punish the wicked. Rama was an incarnation of Vishnu and a model of virtue and a pattern of perfect filial duty and good conduct. The Ramayana depicts the golden age of virtue and piety, fraternal affection, filial devotion, paternal love and men's duty and obligation towards one another. Ramayana is the most popular and religious house-hold book throughout India. Its ethical teachings are very sublime and ideal.

The Yoga Vashista which purports to be composed by Valmiki is also called Uttara (later) Ramayana. It is pure Vedanta and it teaches that all the world and creation are illusion and nothing else.

21 The epic Mahabharata is an encyclopædia of philosophy, religion, ethics, legends, politics and law. It is the work of Dwipayana Vyasa and his disciples. It abounds in great teachings and discourses, the most important of which are (a) Sunatsu-jatya (b) Mokshadharmas (c) Anugita and (d) Bhagvat Gita.

The main topic of Mahabharata is the great war between the Kauravas and Pandvas, an outline of which is given below;—

On the death of Pandu his five sons (called the Pandavas), Yudhishtra, Bheema, Arjuna, Nakula and Sahadeva were minors and therefore his elder brother Dhritrashtra who had been superseded for being blind ascended the throne. He had 100 sons Duryodhana etc. called the Kauravas. Both the Pandavas and Kauravas were brought up and trained together. But while the former were truthful and virtuous the latter were vicious and greedy and hence there was no love lost between the cousins. The Pandavas were at first expelled by Dhritrashtra, but on their marrying (Draupadi), the daughter of the king of Panchala, they were called back and given half the kingdom. The Kauravas were much enraged and they invited the Pandavas to a game of dice and fraudulently deprived them of all their possessions. This caused much bitterness between the parties. The matter was, however, compromised by the banishment of the Pandavas for 13 years with promise of restoration of the their kingdom thereafter. But on the expiry of the period of banishment, the Kauravas refused to make the restoration and that led to the great war. Krishna, Bheeshma, Vidura and Drona tried to make peace but in vain. The Kauravas were annihilated and the Pandavas gained the victory but at the loss of all their kith and kin.

Krishna, joined the Pandavas as car driver of Arjuna and on his wavering to engage in war on account of dislike to kill his relations he was taught through the Gita the doctrine of Karma Yoga i. e. doing his duty by devotion to the Lord and renunciation of pleasure and pain.

22. The Gita forms chapters 26 to 41 of the Bheeshma Parva. It is the most popular and beautiful poem of religion and philosophy and is regarded as Smriti. It teaches salvation by Karma Yoga and knowledge. Its message is devotion and its teacher is an incarnation of the Lord. It is the essence of all scriptures and contains the truth and principles of all religions. Its teachings conflict with no religion and are acceptable to all schools of thought and faith. It is full of moral, social, religious and scientific lessons of the highest order. It is free from all communal biases and prejudices and there is nothing in it of the Brahmanical spirit of the Puranas and Itihasas. Its teachings are liberal, catholic and of universal application. It suits all classes of people except the atheists and pessimists.

The Hindu religion teaches four paths for attaining the supreme goal, viz — Karma (worship), Yoga (meditation), Gyana (knowledge) and Bhakti (devotion). Karma Yoga is a combination of all the four paths and yet it is distinct from them and has its own peculiarities.

23. Karma is any work (Upasana) undertaken for pleasing the Lord. Performance of one's duty leads to success and salvation while its neglect to ruin and sin.

There are four classes of actions—

- (a) Fixed actions ,
- (b) Righteous actions ,
- (c) Bondage actions ,
- (d) Salvation actions ,

The fixed and righteous actions usually include sacrifice, austerity, gift and sacred study and these are briefly explained below .—

Sacrifice is the performance of actions without self-interest for the sake of the Lord and good of the world. It does not mean mere worship with the sacrifice of another's life. It is the sacrifice for the good of other people with the sacrifice of self-interest only.

Austerity is good conduct with body, speech and mind on all sides and not the mortification of sense organs and self torture.

Gift is giving to all in need irrespective of person, place and time and without expecting a return. It does not mean only presents to Brahmanas.

Scriptures mean pious and religious books leading to knowledge and enlightenment of the Lord

All actions cause bondage except those performed for the sake of the Lord (without attachment or self interest). It is a divine ordinance to act for the good and propagation of the world. It is the pleasure of sense objects that causes desires which produce delusion and obscure the inner light. Desires can be discarded by controlling the mind and the control of the mind is acquired by attainment of knowledge.

Nature makes all to act and no one can avoid work. It is by delusion and ahankara that one regards the self as doer.

The Caste system is based on distinction of actions that one can perform according to his nature and not on birth. A Brahman is one who leads a godly and spiritual life; a Kshatriya is one who is a ruler and protector of the people, a Vaishya is one who deals in cultivation and trade, while a Shudra is one who serves others. Even a sinner by acquiring knowledge and devotion attains to peace and salvation. Performance of one's duty leads to all success and by doing his duty with self resignation and without self-interest one attains to salvation and Supreme Goal.

24 Yoga is both meditation and mind control or concentration. It is suppression of all mental functions for meditation on the Lord. It is divine union attained by control of mind.

By constant thinking or meditating one becomes attached to an object and so by constantly thinking of the Lord one becomes devoted to Him and attains to Him at last.

Whatever one thinks at death time to that he attains. Therefore one should meditate on the Lord at all times so that he may be habituated to think of Him even at death time. It is difficult to control the mind.

but by turning it from other objects and by gradual practice and dispassion it can be controlled

One should engage in (Yoga) meditation by retiring to a clean, holy and lonely place, calming and controlling the senses and having no distractions, making the mind one-pointed and sitting with erect and easy posture, looking on the tip of the nose and not in other directions, regulating the life breath (Pranayam), leading a pure godly life and renouncing desire, aversion, pleasure and pain. The yogae should be moderate in food and other bodily needs. The Yoga is attained when the mind becomes steady in soul contemplation and free from all other thoughts and then it feels the highest happiness and peace and bliss.

A Yoga failure is never lost. He makes gradual progress in other births till at last he attains complete success and Supreme Goal.

25. Bhakti (devotion) is a surrender of self with faith and love to the Lord. A devotee of the Lord regarding him as all in all is freed from bondage (delusion), attains to equality of vision and becomes emancipated while still alive (Jiwan mukta).

Some persons devote themselves to the manifest and some to the unmanifest aspect of the Lord. Both classes of the devotees attain to the same Supreme Goal, but the unmanifested aspect is difficult to realize for the embodied being.

If a person can not devote himself to the Lord with his whole mind and intellect, he should take to Yoga.

practice, and if he can not practise Yoga he should perform action for the sake of Lord; and if he cannot even do that, he should act by renouncing the fruits of actions and thus attain to peace and emancipation.

A devotee is both a Yogee and Sanyasee and attains to the godly state

26 Gyana is knowledge or perception of what is Lord, His supreme character, relation with and distinction from Soul and Nature

Knowledge is acquired by discipleship (service and interrogation) of a learned teacher, also by faith and devotion of the Lord and control of mind and senses. On attainment of knowledge one becomes wise and sees the Lord as all in all and every where. Knowledge destroys all bondage and delusion and brings peace and happiness.

The Gyanee (one possessed of knowledge) is of good conduct, pious, performer of selfless actions, content, endowed with Sattva, good to others, truthful, peaceful, mind-controlled, free from desire and aversion, pleasure and pain, devotee of the Lord, free from delusion, arrogance and cruelty etc

27 Renunciation (Sanya-sa) of actions does not lead to salvation, and it is not possible to renounce all actions. Sanyasa is not renunciation of actions but performance of actions without desiring their fruits

Persons engaging in Yoga concentration by discarding the pleasures of sense objects, controlling the mind and renouncing desires, fear and anger attain to knowledge, salvation, peace and Nirvana. The goal of Sanyasa and Karma Yoga is the same i.e. knowledge and salvation. But Karma Yoga is simpler and easier than the Sanyasa. As it consists of mere performance of action (without attachment) for the sake of the Lord and thereafter knowledge and control of mind and peace follow by themselves. Sanyasa requires performance of actions by renouncing of pleasures of objects and this is hard to accomplish without resort to actions for the sake of the Lord.

28 Salvation and Bondage

Salvation (Moksha) is freedom from delusion and emancipation from all pain of birth and death for ever. It is the merging of the self in the Supreme Lord and as such it is called Nirvan and by other names. It is the ideal object of all worship and the highest goal of all knowledge.

Bondage (Bandhana) is attachment with body caused by delusion. The body is ever full of pain, impermanent and perishable.

There are two paths of light and darkness, Devayana and pittriyana. The wise follow the former and attains to salvation while the fool who follows the latter with desire for fruits follows the latter and after temporary enjoyment returns to the world of birth and death.

In order to attain salvation there must be faith and devotion in the Lord and knowledge and wisdom. Those who are relying on destiny and wisdom attain to bondage Lack of faith and devotion also causes ruin.

29 The Gita teaches that there is only one Lord who is all in all. He is all reality, all intelligence and all happiness. He is eternal, imperishable and there is no equal or supreme to Him. He is omnipresent, omnipotent and omniscient. He is creator, supporter and destroyer of all and these characteristics are called Brahma, Vishnu and Mahesh, and also Sattva, Rajas and Tamas.

The Lord is also called Brahma and Atma, and these terms also indicate subordinate characters, viz. the four-faced Brahma (the creator) and the individual Jivatma (the embodied soul). To distinguish the Lord from these characters, He is called Param-Brahma and Paramatma.

The worshippers of other deities are really the worshippers of the Supreme Lord who grants their prayers, but as they know Him not they are deluded and fall down. He is the life and essence of all nature and its creation and all of them reflect His glory and are His manifestations. He can not be attained by mere worship or sacrifice etc. He is attainable only by devotion and His mercy.

30 The Nature (Prakriti) is the chief doer and also the creative power of the Lord from whom it emanates at the beginning of Kalpa, creates the universe, which at the end of the Kalpa is dissolved into it and it then re-enters the Lord. It (Nature) is eternal and is the cause of all activity and creation.

The Gita thus regards Nature both as Pradhana and as bond-maid (Yoga Maya) of the Lord : the Nature is the creator of all things under the supervision and guidance of the Lord

It is manifest as universe, body or matter and as such it is perishable, unintelligent and ever changing. It is eightfold and has manifold vikarasa (changing forms)

It has three qualities of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas which are the direct cause of all activity, effect and agency. When these qualities are equipoised, Nature ceases to act

31 The Atma (soul) is a mere reflection or a particle of the Supreme Lord. When it assumes a body, it controls and impells the sense organs and through them seems to enjoy objects, suffer pleasure and pain and undergo birth and death, and do actions which are performed by nature. On being freed from delusion and attaining to knowledge it achieves union with the Supreme Lord. It is eternal, imperishable and knower and has all the characteristics of the Lord. It is thus both Saguna and Nirguna, doer and non-doer, attached and unattached. It is different from the body which is perishable and changing. The ignorant confuse it with the body which it changes like clothes. It is called intelligent or higher Prakriti which in union with the Lower Nature (matter) is the cause of all beings and universe.

32 Gunas are the Nature's three qualities called Sattva (purity), Rajas (impurity) and Tamas (darkness). The character of Sattva is light and happiness, of Rajas desire and activity, and of Tamas delusion and death. It is these qualities that cause all actions and creation. When they are equipoised, Nature is calm and asleep and when they are disturbed Nature begins to act and create. But there is always one particular quality in predominance over the other two, and as such it exerts its influence to the exclusion of the others. Hence all beings are ever characterised by one or other of the qualities. None is free from them in the universe, except the Lord, who alone is called Nirgun. The qualities are said to be under His control and exhibit His Nature.

Attachment to the qualities causes bondage and their abandonment or crossing beyond leads to salvation and peace. Persons endowed with Sattva go to heaven, those with Rajas to human world and those with Tamas to hell. It is the qualities (gunas) that constitute the Maya or Illusion and the character of one's Gunas is determined by the past Karmas. They are crossed or overcome by renunciation of attachment, desire and aversion, attainment of knowledge, devotion and calmness of mind and when they are crossed, one attains to Brahma state or Nirvana.

33 The Gita tells a simple story of creation. The Lord produced two kinds of nature, the higher and the lower (spirit and matter) Prakriti. The latter gave rise to Budhhi (intellect), Ahankara (ego), mind, sky, air, fire, water and earth & their modifications (vikars).

consisting of 11 sense organs, 5 objects and manifold mental feelings (pleasure, pain, desire, aversion etc) From the union of the higher and the lower nature (of 24 essences) is the birth of all beings, both animate and inanimate This universe represents the manifestation and glory of the Lord who evolves nature at the beginning of each Kalpa, then nature brings forth the creation and at the end of the Kalpa, the creation dissolves into nature and the latter in the Lord Thus the creation and dissolution of the universe goes on for ever and ever The universe is like an Ashvattha tree with roots above, branches below, the Vedas its leaves, the qualities its nourishment, objects its blossoms, and action bondage its under-roots It is by cutting of these under or secondary roots that one can cross beyond this Ashvattha tree and attain to the Supreme Goal from which there is no return to the world

34 The author of the Gita is Veda Vyasā as indicated in Chap VIII—75 It is a part of Mahabharata (Bheeshmā Parva, chapters 24 to 41) and so naturally must have been composed by him along with that epic. But on account of its excellence and eminence it has come to stand by itself Its composition in the form of a dialogue between Krishna and Arjuna gives it a wonderful charm and sanctity. The faithful and devout Vaishnavas sincerely believe that the Gita was delivered by Lord Krishna himself on the battle field to dispel the ignorance of Arjuna and for the salvation of mankind.

As a religious and philosophical work of a very high order it commands respect throughout the world and has been translated in great many languages. Its author must have been a person well versed in philosophy, religion, ethics, and scriptures. Dwipayana Vyasa alone was the saint of that reputation and fame.

35 The Age of Gita is a subject of much controversy and conflict of opinions.

Chintaman Vinayak puts it as 2,000 B C Gopal Ayer as 1194 B C Lokmanya Tilak 500 years before Shaka (or 422 B C) and Justice Telang as 300 B C Babu Sirish Chandra Basu (from the kingly period mentioned in the Matsya and the Vishnn Purans) makes the age of Mahabharata to be only 1922 years. The Hindus in general by holding the Great War to have taken place at the end of Dwapara and beginning of Kaliyuga regard the age of the Gita to be 5,000 B C. It appears from these authorities that the Gita was composed at the time of the Buddhist revolution when the religions were in the melting pot and there was a great commotion and strife for supremacy of the old and new faiths. It was at this time that the great epics of Ramayana and Mahabharata and the Puranas were compiled depicting the war of virtue and vice, (godly and ungodly) as representing Brahmans and Buddhists. It was at this crisis that the Gita was composed as a Vedanta teaching, combining the essence of all that is the highest and noblest in the

Vedas, Upanishads and Darshan Sutras and avoiding the narrow and communal dogmas and theories of the time

There is no reference to the Gita in the ancient works. Its earliest available commentary is that of Shanakracharya of the 8th century and there is no mention in it of any earlier commentary. The Gita was thus composed between 300 B C and the beginning of the Christian era i.e. the age of the Gita is about 2 000 years.

36 Krishna is regarded by the Hindus as an incarnation of Vishnu. His earliest reference is found in the Rigveda which mentions him as a hermit and son of Vasdeva and Devki. His life and achievements are dealt with fully in Mahabharat and Bhagvat Puran. Mathura was his birth place and play ground and almost all the temples there are dedicated to him. These temples belong to four classes of Varishnavas, viz-Ramanujis, Neemmargis, Madhvacharis and Vallabhacharis and their four offshoots-Ramanandis, Haridasis, Gaurias and Radhaballabis. All these worship Krishna but some with Rukmani and some with Radha as representing Nature, Maya and devotion.

Personal—This book is an outcome of my four years of religious study after retirement from Government Service. Like other Indians knowing English but ignorant of Sanskrit, Mrs Besant's Bhagwat Gita and Swami Vivekanand's discourses have been the spiritual delight of all my life. Later

I had occasion to read the Hindi Gitas of Rai Zalim Singh Lokuranya Tilak and Arya Muni and then experienced a thrill of happiness never known before. This was followed by a study of the Gita commentaries of Shri Shankaracharya, Ramanujacharya and Madhwacharya which are the ancient and standard works on the subject. There was felt to be a great want for a work containing in a concise form, Padachheda (separation of words), wordmeaning and literal translation of the verses. Accordingly two Hindi Translations of the Gita were compiled and issued in 1924 and 1925. This was followed by a course of 2 year's study of Hindu scriptures and philosophies as far as available. Short notes were made of all these pursuits and in order to utilize them for others, they have been embodied in the English edition and its Hindi Translation which represent my last effort in Gita publication. I am fully conscious of my shortcomings and ignorance and issue this compilation only on the urging of my many friends and Divine Providence. I express my gratitude to Pandit Hari Mangal Misra M A, Professor of the Queen's College, Benaras for examining and correcting the proofs of the English book and Pandit Amolak Ram of Lakshmi Rangji Vidyalaya for that of the Hindi Edition.

BHAGAVAT GITA

CHAPTER I.

ARJUNA'S DELUSION.

(INTRODUCTION)

The Bhagavat Gita or the Lord's Song is divided into three Parts. The first Part comprising chapters I to VI deals with Action Path (karma yoga) which is discussed and demonstrated on the analogy of the six Indian Philosophies, viz the Vedant, Sankhya, Mimansa, Naya, Vaisheshik, and Yoga. All that is the best and excellent in these Systems is blended, harmonized in the first six chapters of this book.

The second Part comprising chapters VII to XII deals with Brahma knowledge (Gyana Vigyana) which leads to contemplation and devotion. The third Part comprising chapters XIII to XVIII deals with Nature or the material world as distinguished from the soul and spirit. It is by renouncing of this world that one attains to liberation or salvation.

2 The chapter I which purports to describe the dejection or delusion of Arjuna is an allegory of the great battle of life in which there is a constant struggle between the forces of Virtue and Vice (or good and evil tendencies) for supremacy and in which the Jiva-atma (soul) has to fight against desires and lower passions of the world in order to ascend higher for salvation. The one (Virtue) tries to effect a union between the human soul and the supreme soul; and the other (Vice) tries to spread a veil over his vision and lower him down.

The man is at first affected by the sense objects and is then overcome with delusion and dejection. But on attainment of true knowledge, his delusion is dispelled and he obtains salvation.

3 This chapter thus seems to be based on the analogy of Vedânta (or Brahma Sutra of Badarayan), the principal teachings of which are :—

- (a) that there is only one supreme Brahma, all in all, without a second and without qualities,
- (b) that the rambling of the mind gives rise to Maya or delusion,
- (c) that the world and its beings are simply a reflection of the supreme Brahma caused by the rambling of the mind or Maya,
- (d) that the moksha or liberation from the delusion is obtained through knowledge and thus the soul is united with the Supreme Reality and the world of delusion ceases to exist

4 The allegorical works on the teachings of the Vedânta exist in India from ancient times, and one of such allegories on the lines of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress is the Prabodh Chandrodaya or the Rise of the Intellectual Moon. In the form of a small drama, it nicely displays the struggle between the forces of knowledge and delusion and that how in the end the triumph of the one leads to the annihilation of the other.

धृतराष्ट्र उवाच

१-धर्मक्षेत्रे कुरुक्षेत्रे समवेता युयुत्सवः ।

मामकाः पाण्डवाश्चैव किमकुर्वत संजय ॥

पदच्छेदः

Word-meaning

धर्म-क्षेत्रे, कुरु-क्षेत्रे, { On holy-plain, on Kuruksetra, समवेताः, युयुत्सवः । } gathered together, battle-eager, मामकाः, पाण्डवाः, च, एव, { mine, Pandu's sons, and, also किम्-अकुर्वत, संजय ॥ } what, did do, Sanjaya

DHĒITARASHTRA SAID

Translation—On the holy plain of Kurukshetra, gathered together, eager for battle, Sanjaya ! what did the sons of Pandu and also mine do ?

NOTE—Swami Vivekananda and others regard this chapter as an allegory “describing the struggle which is constantly going on between the tendencies of good and evil.” According to this view Pandavas, and Kauravas ( or Dhritrashtra's sons ) may represent Virtue, and Vice ( or knowledge and delusion ) Sanjaya a Seer and Kurukshetra the struggle of life i. e. the Seer is asked to describe how the forces of Virtue and Vice conduct themselves in the struggle of this life

} teacher, approaching, king, word, spoke

SANJAYA SAID

Translation—Then seeing the Pandava army arrayed (in battle form) and approaching the teacher (Drona), the king Duryodhana spoke (these) words.

NOTE—Here the Pandava army represents the forces of Virtue, Duryodhana—Desire or Passion, and Drona—Greed; the Desire (or the man attached to worldly objects) seeing the forces of Virtue turns to its guide the Greed, and then speaks as follows

३-पश्यैतां पाण्डुपुत्राणां आचार्यं महतीं चमूम् ।
व्यूढां द्रुपदपुत्रेण तव शिष्येण धीमता ॥

पश्य, एताम्, पाण्डु-पुत्राणाम्, } See, this, of Pandu's sons,

व्यूढाम्, द्रुपद-पुत्रेण,
 तव, शिष्येण, धीमता ॥

} arrayed, by Drupad's son,
 } hy, by disciple, by wise.

Translation—Teacher ! see this great army of the Pandu's sons arrayed by thy wise disciple, the son of Drupad.

NOTE—Here Pandav's army represents the forces of Virtue, Drona—Greed, Drupada's son (Dhrishtadyumna)-Contentment i. e. the Desire showed to its teacher the Greed, the great army of Virtue arrayed by Contentment his own wise pupil, and, hence his destroyer (Drona's death being caused by Dhrishtadyumna )

४-अत्र शूरा महेष्वासा भीमार्जुनसमा युधि ।

 पौण्ड्रम्, दध्मौ, महा-शंखम्, } Paundra, blew, great-conch, भीम-कर्मा, वृक-उदरः ॥ } terrible-deeds, wolf-bellied

Translation—Krishna blew the Panchjanya, Arjuna the Devadatta and the Wolf bellied (Bheema) of the terrible deeds (blew) the great conch Paundra.

NOTE—Here Panchajanya represents meditation,
Hrishikesh „ „ Intellect
Devadatta „ „ Devotion,

Dhananjaya represents Mind,

Paundra „ Anusterity,

• • Vrikodra „ Strength,

i.e. the Intellect and Mind perform the acts of meditation. Devotion and Strength engage in austerity.

Anantvijaya, king,

Kunti's-son, Yudhishtira,

Nakula, Sahdeva, and,

Sughosha-Manipushpaka

Translation.—Raja Yudhishtira, the son of Kunti (blew) the Anantvijaya, while Nakula and Sahdeva (blew) Sughosha and Manipushpaka

NOTE—Here Anantavijaya represents Dharma

Yudhishtira

„ Truth,

Nakula

„ Patience,

Sahdeva

„ Control,

Sughosha

„ Sacrifice,

Manipushpaka

„ Gift,

i.e. the Truth engages in Dharma while Patience and Control in performing sacrifices and making gifts respectively.

Translation—Then ; O Lord of the Earth !
(he) spoke this word to Hrishikesh

ARJUNA SAID

“Achyut ! place my chariot in the midst of the two armies.”

NOTE—Here Hrishikesh represents Intellect and Arjuna—Mind & the Mind asks the Intellect to let it think about the two forces

२२-यावदेतान्निरीक्षेऽहं योद्धुकामानवस्थितान्।

CHAPTER II.

WISDOM PATH

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter purports to treat of the Sankhya Yoga or the Sankhya Philosophy of the sage Kapil, whose fundamental doctrines are:—

- (a) Nature and Soul are the two separate, eternal and unborn entities,
- (b) The Soul is the Purusha being perceiving, unqualified, unproducing, inactive, liberated by knowledge, bound by ignorance and experimenter of the effects of action,
- (c) The Nature is the Pradhan being unperceiving, qualified, producing and active,
- (d) The three Gunas are the qualities or forces of Nature and are the causes of all activities. The world is created and dissolved by the disturbance and restoration of equilibrium of the said Gunas.
- (e) The Moksha is the liberation of the Soul from all pain by knowledge of the distinction between the Self and Nature. It is not an annihilation of Nature but simply its ceasing to act or remaining calm or steady.
- (f) Buddhi (Intelligence, consciousness or knowledge) is the product of Nature and is the instrument of the Soul for perceiving Nature and experiencing the effects of action or sense objects.

This chapter II deals with Karma Yoga (Action Path) on the analogy of the Sankhya System or Wisdom Path.

After pointing out the evils of delusion caused by pleasures & pain of sense objects, it proceeds at first to show the distinction between Body and Soul. The one (Soul) is described as eternal, unchanging, undestructable, unperishable, immortal, unborn, primal, stable, unmeasureable, unmanifest, and all-pervading, while the other (Body) is exhibited as unpermanent, changing, perishable, mortal, subject to birth and death, finite and manifest. Therefore one must perform his duty without any fear of life and death. The discharge of duty leads to success both in this world and the other, while its abandonment causes dishonour and bondage.

The second portion of this chapter deals with the steady Intellect, its character and effects. Persons of unsteady Intellect run after pleasures and fall into bondage, while those of steady Intellect perform actions by abandoning attachment and attain to self control, freedom from desires and aversion, peace, liberation from pain and Supreme goal or Nirvana.

The fundamental principles of the Sankhya System are scattered about throughout the Gita, and the Sankhya and Karma Yoga are characterised, as one and the same,

THE LORD SAID

Translation—Whence this weakness, has overtaken thee Arjuna in this crisis. It is befitting the ignoble, unheavenly and unbecoming action.

NOTE—It is in human birth alone that one can strive for knowledge and salvation, but to sink in delusion during that time is sinful, hellish and dishonourable

THE LORD SAID

Translation—Thou grievest for the ungrievable and speakest wise words. The wise grieve not for the dead or for the living.

NOTE—Verses 11 to 30 according to the Sankhya System of Kapil teach that the Soul is unborn eternal, imperishable, all-pervading, unchanging, all knowing, while the body is non-eternal, changeful, dependent and perishable i.e. the Soul is immortal and that the ignorant and not the wise regard it as perishable

G/o Bhagavat, V-11—1.

Translation—As the embodied (Soul) in this body has childhood, youth and old age, so the acquiring of another body. The wise is not deluded there.

NOTE—As the passing of the different stages of life (infancy, youth and old age) are inevitable for the body, so changes of bodies are inevitable for the Soul which is eternal and imperishable. In death the wise should not confound the soul with the body which alone perishes but is replaced by a new one.

Translation—Arjuna ! the contacts of senses are the givers of cold and heat, joy and grief, coming and going and unlasting, Bharata ! bear them.

NOTE—The afflictions of cold, and heat, joy and sorrow, etc are caused by action or contact of sense organs with sense objects. They come and go and are not permanent. Therefore one should endure such bodily afflictions patiently or with indifference and should not grieve for such changes.

C/o. Mahabharata, XII-174-20 and 21.

तथा, अपि, त्वम्, महाबाहो, then, even, thou, Arjuna,
न, एनम्, शोचितुम्, अर्हसि | not, this, to grieve, shouldst.

Translation—If thou thinkest this (Soul) as ever being born and ever dying, even then, Arjuna ! thou shouldst not grieve for this.

NOTE—Accepting the material theory that for every being there is a new soul which perishes with death, even then there is no cause for sorrow,

(a) because then the Soul is relieved once for all from all the wordly afflictions, or

(b) • because these states of birth and death inevitably follow each other as declared in the next verse.

तत्र, कः, परिदेवना ॥ } there, what, grief.

Translation—Arjuna unmanifest is the origin of beings, manifest the middle, and unmanifest is also the end—what is there to grieve.

NOTE—(a) According to Sankha System the manifest is the Nature and the manifested is the Body which is caused and uncaused (produced and destroyed) by the same Nature. The birth, life and death of the Body being thus the work of Nature, there is therefore no ground to grieve for such changes.

(b) The created beings being mere illusions their origin (source) is unseen, their middle (existence) is seen, and the end (death) is again unseen. Therefore there is no cause to mourn for death which is only a change from manifestation to unmanifestaion or return to the original state.

C/o Mahabharata, XI—2—13. “He has come from non-perception and has gone back to non-perception. He is not thine and nor thou art his. What is this vain lamentation for?”

• Mahabharata, XII—174—17 “Thy son came from an invisible region. He has gone and become invisible. He did not know thee, Thou did not know him. Who art thou and for whom thou grieveest."

Mahabharata, XII—206—28. "The Soul is unmanifest but when clothed with qualities, it becomes manifest. When destruction comes it once more becomes unmanifest."

९६-आश्चर्यवत्पश्यति कश्चिदेन-

माश्चर्यवद्वदति तथैव चान्यः ।

अन्यः, शृणोति, श्रुत्वा, अपि,		other, hears, hearing, even,
एनम्, वेद, न, च, एव, कश्चित् ।		this, knows, not, verily, any.

Translation—Some sees this as a wonder, another speaks of this as a wonder, another hears of this as a wonder, and hearing this even no one verily knows this (Soul).

NOTE—(a) The Soul is all pervading and supreme but subtle and hence all see, speak and hear of it with awe, and wonder, and even after so perceiving it no one knows it fully.

(b) A person who sees, speaks and hears of the Jiv-atma is indeed a wonder and such a person is very rare to meet with.

C/o Kathaballi, *I—2—7 “Who to many is not available even for hearing, whom many having heard yet know not, wonderful is his speaker, blessed is his finder, wonderful is his knower and blessed is his taught”

Ken I—3 “The eye goes not there, the speech goes not there, nor the understanding We know him not and we do not know how to explain him He is distinct from and higher than all known and unknown things We have heard of him from the former sages who have explained him to us”

३०-देही नित्यमवध्योऽयं देहे सर्वस्य भारत ।

पदच्छेद

Word-meaning

देही, नित्यम्, अवध्यः, अयम्,	Embodied, ever, unslayable, this, in body, of all, Arjuna , herefore, all, beings, not, thou, to grieve, shouldst.
देहे, सर्वस्य, भारत ।
तस्मात्, सर्वाणि, भूतानि,
न, त्वम्, शोचितुम्, अर्हसि ॥

Translation—Arjuna ! this embodied (Soul) in the body of all is ever unslayable Therefore thou shouldst not grieve for any being.

NOTE—The Soul in the bodies of all beings is eternal and imperishable. It is only the body that perishes and hence there is no cause to mourn for the death of any one.

३१-स्वधर्ममपि चावेक्ष्य न विकम्पितुमर्हसि । war, better,

अन्यत्, क्षत्रियस्य, न, विद्यते ॥ other, of Kshatriya, not, is

Translation—And looking also to thy duty, thou shouldst not tremble, because for a Kshatriya nothing is better than a righteous war.

NOTE—Performance of one's duty is the highest virtue and worship of the Lord. Therefore a man must discharge his duty in this world without any fear of life or death

For the duties of Kshatriyas see B. G. XVIII—43.

३२-यदृच्छया चोपपन्नं स्वर्गद्वारमपावृतम् ।

} blessed, Kshatriyas, Arjuna, obtain, battle, like this.

Translation—Parth ! the blessed Kshatriyas obtain a battle like this. It is attaining the open door of heaven unsought.

NOTE—Persons that succeed in performing their duty attain to salvation without any difficulty as a matter of course.

३३-अथ चेत्त्वमिमं धर्म्यं संग्रामं न करिष्यसि ।

ततः, स्व-धर्मम्, कीर्तिम्, च, | then, thy-duty, honour, and,
हित्वा, पापम्, अवाप्स्यसि ॥ | forsaking, sin, shall incur.

Translation—And if thou wouldst not wage this righteous war, then forsaking thy duty and honour thou shalt incur sin.

NOTE—If one fails to perform one's duty, he not only loses the reward due for discharge of such duty but also incurs dishonour and ruin.

३४-अकीर्तिंचापि भूतानिकथयिष्यन्ति तेऽव्ययाम्
संभावितस्य चाकीर्तिर्मरणादतिरिच्यते ॥

संभावितस्य, च, अकीर्तिः, } of noble, and, disgrace, मरणात्, अतिरिच्यते ॥ } than death, is greater.

Translation—The people will also recount thy eternal disgrace and for a noble (man) disgrace is greater than death.

NOTE—A man forsaking his duty loses his reputation and the people ever talk about his disgrace. This is unbearable and worse than death.

C/o. Mahabharata, V—72—24. "To a man of noble descent even censure is death, and death is many times better than bearing a life of blame"

३५-भयाद्रणादुपरतं संस्यन्ते त्वां महारथाः ।

तस्मात्, उत्तिष्ठ, कौन्तेय, | therefore, arise, Arjuna,
युद्धाय, कृत-निश्चयः ॥ | or fight, making-resolve.

Translation—Being slain thou shalt attain to heaven, or having conquered thou shalt enjoy the earth. Therefore Arjuna! arise, making resolve to fight.

NOTE—Performance of one's duty leads to success in the world during life and to heaven after death, and therefore every one should try to do his duty

Yajur Veda—XXV—44 “No, here thou diest not, thou art injured not, thou goest by easy paths to gods”

३८-सुख दुःखे समे कृत्वा लाभालाभौ जयाजयौ । intellect, equipped, by which,

Arjuna
action-bondage, shalt be freed.

Translation—This has been declared to thee in Sankhya. Now hear this by Intellect path equipped with which, Intellect, Parth ! thou shalt be freed from action bondage.

NOTE—The first portion (1-38) of this chapter has dealt with the Sankhya Tattava of soul, body and nature. The second portion (39-72) teaches Buddhi or wisdom by acquiring which fully one attains to liberation from all pain.

४०-नेहाभिक्रमनाशोऽस्तिप्रत्यवायो न विद्यते । little, even, its, of knowledge, saves, from great, from fear.

Translation—There is neither loss nor harm of action. Even a little of this knowledge saves from great fear.

NOTE—Buddhi Yaga (Intellect Path) does not teach neglect, or abandonment of one's, duty. Even a little of self knowledge ultimately leads to liberation from pain.

U/o B. G VI-41 to 45.

४१-व्यवसायात्मिका बुद्धिरेकेह कुरुनन्दन ।

बहु-शाखाः, हि, अनन्ताः, च, } many-branches, verily, endless,
बुद्धयः, अव्यवसायिनाम् ॥ } and, intellect, of irresolute.

Translation—Arjuna ! there is one resolute (steady) Intellect but there are verily many and endless branches of the irresolute Intellect.

NOTE—One with steady Intellect knowing the Soul as distinct from the body gives up attachment for sense objects and is thereby liberated, while one with unsteady Intellect identifies the Soul with the body and is attached to many kinds of enjoyments of the sense objects and thus falls into bondage.

४२-यासिमां पुष्पितां वाचं प्रवदन्त्यविपश्चितः ।

 न, अन्यत्, अस्ति, इति, वादिनः | not, else, is, thus, saying

Translation—Partha ! the unwise lovers of the Vedic words recite such flowery speech saying thus “there is nothing else”

NOTE—The possessors of unsteady Intellect delight in the letter of the Vedic texts enjoining rituals for attainment of desires and enjoyments. They contend that there is no higher goal than heaven and bodily pleasures

४३-कामात्मानः स्वर्गपरा जन्मकर्मफलप्रदाम् ।

क्रिया-विशेष-बहुलाम्, | rites-streat-many,
 भोग-ऐश्वर्य-गतिम्, प्रति ॥ | happiness-lordship-attainment, for

Translation—To the desire-minded and heaven Supreme holders, the great many ( Vedic ) rites are givers of action fruits as birth for attainment of happiness and lordship.

NOTE—Such persons immersed in desires and enjoyments consider that the Vedas teach rituals yielding fruits as good birth and happiness.

निर्द्वन्द्वः, नित्य-सत्त्व-स्थः,

निर्योग-क्षेमः, आत्मवान् ॥

| pairless, ever-wisdom-established, without gain-protection, mind-controlled.

Translation—The Vedas deal with the three qualities. Arjuna be thou without the three qualities, without pairs (of opposites), ever established in wisdom, without gain and protection (desires and fears) and mind controlled.

NOTE—Persons of unsteady intelligence are attached to enjoyments mentioned in the Vedas as reward of good actions caused by the qualities of nature. But persons of steady intelligence cross beyond the qualities and are thus freed from attachments and desires, pleasures and pain, and become controller of their minds and endowed with Brahma Knowledge.

C/o Kathaballi, I—2—2. "The wise man on meeting good and pleasant examiners, and distinguishes them. He prefers the good to the pleasant, while the fool accepts the pleasant out of a desire for gain and protection."

४६-यावान् अर्थ उपदाने सर्वतः संप्लुतोदके ।

तावान्, सर्वेषु, वेदेषु, } so, in all, in Vedas, ब्राह्मणस्य, विजानतः ॥ } of Brahman, wise.

Translation—Of what use is a reservoir of water in a place full of water on all sides so are all the Vedas to a wise Brahman.

NOTE—(1) As a reservoir surrounded on all sides by water (ocean) is of no utility, so for a person that has attained to the bliss of self knowledge, there is no need for the happiness etc., resulting from the Vedic rituals loved by the unwise.

(2) As a great tank of water is useful both for bathing and navigation, so are the Vedas to a knowing Brahman, as teaching both Kamyā and Akamyā actions i e, actions leading to desires and bondage, & actions leading to knowledge and salvation

४७-कर्मण्येवाधिकारस्ते मा फलेषु कदाचन ।

मा, कर्म-फल-हेतुः, भूः, } not, action-fruit-motive, be, मा, ते, संगः, अस्तु, अकर्मणि } not, thy, attachment, be,
in inaction.

Translation—Thy concern is with action only and never with fruit. Let not the fruit of action be thy motive nor let thy attachment be with inaction.

NOTE—It is our duty to act but not to expect reward thereof Expectation of fruit causes bondage.

- Action should therefore be performed without seeking the fruits, but it should not be forsaken. The former leads to salvation and the latter to sin & e, action must be performed as a duty without attachment.

C/o Ishabas 2 "One should wish to live a hundred years surely by acting. Actions taint not man, and there is no other way for him

४८-योगस्थः कुरु कर्माणि सङ्गं त्यक्त्वा धनञ्जय ।

सिद्धिं असिद्धयोः, समः, भूत्वा,	success-failure, equal, being, equality, yoga, is called.
समत्वम्, योगः, उच्यते ॥

Translation—Dhananjaya ! perform action with steadfast concentration by abandoning attachment and being equal in success and failure.

The equality is called (Buddhi) Yoga

NOTE—According to Sankh̄ya System when the Soul attains to knowledge, the nature ceases its activity and the three qualities are equi-poised. Thus on the attainment of the steady Intellect there is an abandonment of all attainments, desires, pleasures and pain. The Buddhi Yoga is equality, equilibrium or steadiness of thinking attended with renunciation or dispassion.

बुद्धौ, शरणं, अन्विच्छ,
कृपणाः, फल-हेतवः ॥

} in wisdom, refuge, seek,
} wretched, fruit-seeker.

Translation—Dhananjaya ! Action (fruitful) is verily much lower than the Intellect path. Seek refuge in Intellect. The fruit seekers are wretched.

NOTE—Intellect path is superior to performance of action with desire for fruits and therefore one should resort to the former and avoid the latter which causes bondage.

C/o Brihadaranyak, III-8-10 —“O Gorgee ! wretched is he who departs from the world without knowing the unperishable.”

५०-बुद्धियुक्तो जहातीह उभे सुकृतदुष्कृते ।

योगः, कर्मसु, कौशलम् ॥		yoga , in action, wellbeing

Translation—The Intellect united discards here both good and bad actions (fruit). Therefore engage in (Buddhi) Yoga. The Yoga is well-being of action.

NOTE—Both good and bad actions cause bondage. Therefore one possessed of steady Intellect looks upon all action fruits whether good or bad as an evil and renounces them both. The (Buddhi) yoga saves one from the evil or action bondage.

C/o. Brihadaranyak, IV—4—22. "Him (the wise) these two thoughts do not overcome, neither the thought 'hence I did wrong, nor the thought hence I did right' " Verily he overcomes them both. What he has done and what he has not done do not affect him "

Translation—The men possessed of Intellect abandoning the action born fruits and freed from the bonds of birth verily go to the painless abode.

NOTE—Persons possessed of steady Intellect perform actions without desire for fruits and being thus liberated from bondage attain to supreme bliss

C/o. Mahabharat, XII—17—17 “Wordly enjoyments are called bond and they are also called action. Liberated from these two sins (action-bonds) one attains to the highest goal ”

Translation—When thy Intellect shall cross beyond the mire of delusion, then thou shalt attain to indifference of the heard (Vedas) and hearable (other Shashtras).

NOTE—On attainment of steady Intellect (freedom from delusion) one is liberated from the fruits of all good actions enjoined by the Vedas and Shastras (Shruti and Smriti)

Koormā, II—6—49. "On the dispelling of the mire of delusion, the knowledge by which that goal is seen, is also attained under the direction of the Lord "

Translation—When a ( man ) withdraws his sense organs from sense objects from all sides like a tortoise limbs, his Intellect is steadfast.

NOTE—The man of steadfast Intellect controls his sense organs by withdrawing them from the pleasures and pain of sense objects like a tortoise withdrawing his limbs inside his shell at will

C/o. Mahabharata, XII—174—51, "When a man succeeds in withdrawing all his desires like a tortoise withdrawing all its limbs; then his Soul which is self luminous, succeeds in looking into itself " of fasting, man ;

रस-वर्जम्, रसः, अपि, अस्य, taste-excepting, taste, also, his, परम्, दृष्ट्वा, निवर्तते ॥ supreme, seeing, disappears.

Translation—The objects are discarded by a fasting man but not the taste. His taste also disappears on seeing the supreme.

NOTE—A man may discard sense objects as food etc. in austerity or illness but he can not give up their relish or feeling of pleasure and pain. The pleasure and pain disappear only on attainment of self knowledge or realization.

C/o. Yoga Vasistha, II—2—9 "Until the self is realized it is as difficult for objects to be discarded as for plants to grow on sand

६०-यततो ह्यपि कौन्तेय पुरुषस्य विपश्चितः ।

पदच्छेद

Word-meaning.

यततः, हि, अपि, कौन्तेय, | Striving, verily, even, Arjuna,
पुरुषस्य, विपश्चितः । | of man, of wise ;

इन्द्रियाणि, प्रमाथीनि, | senses, powerful, ,
हरन्ति, प्रसभं, मनः ॥ | overcome, forcibly, mind.

Translation—Arjuna ! Verily the powerful senses forcibly overcome the mind of even a striving and wise man.

NOTE—The sense organs are very strong and very difficult to control. They overcome even 'the wise sages whose craving for sense objects does not cease till they fully realize' the Lord.

६१-तानि सर्वाणि संयम्य युक्त आसीत मत्परः ।

वशे हि यस्येन्द्रियाणि तस्य प्रज्ञा प्रतिष्ठिता ॥

तानि, सर्वाणि, संयम्य, | Then, all, controlling, "

वशे, हि, यस्य, इन्द्रियाणि, | in control, for, whose, senses,
तस्य, प्रज्ञा, प्रतिष्ठिता ॥ | his, Intellect, steadfast.

Translation—The Yogee holding me supreme sits controlling them all, for whose senses are under control, his Intellect is steadfast.

NOTE—The man of steadfast Intellect controls his • • sense organs by fixing his mind in Soul contemplation.

C/o. Kathaballi, 11—3—11. "The firm holding of senses is considered Yoga, and the worshipper thus • becomes wise as yoga is subject to rise and fall."

Kathaballi, 1—3—6 "The senses of him who is wise with his mind always under control are manageable like the good horses of a driver."

६२-ध्यायतो विषयान्पुंसः संगस्तेषूपजायते ।

कामात्, क्रोधः, अभिजायते॥	from desire, anger, arises.

Translation—From the thinking of objects by a man an attachment for them is created, from attachment grows desire and from desire grows anger.

NOTE—Thinking of objects makes one to like them, • liking leads one to desire to possess them and the checking of desires gives rise to anger.

C/o. Markandeya, III—71. "From attachment grows desire, from desire covetousness, from cove-tousness springs stupefaction, and from that the weakness of memory, from the impairment of memory, grows loss of Intellect and from the loss of Intellect follows the destruction of one's own self'

Translation—That mind which yields to the rambling senses verily overcomes his Intellect like the wind (carrying off) a boat in water.

NOTE — As a boat at the mercy of wind at sea is uncontrollable by the sailor, so one whose sense organs are not under his control can not have steady Intellect.

C/o Kathaballī, I—3—5 The senses of the unwise with mind always uncontrolled are unmanageable like the naughty horses of a driver”.

Mahabharata III—211—26 “When a man’s mind is overcome by any one of the senses running wild, he loses his reason, becomes like a ship tossed by storm upon the high Seas”.

Translation—Parth ! this is Brahmic state and (one) attaining to it is not deluded ; by acquiring this even up to death time one obtains the Brahma Nirwan.

NOTE—The attainment of the steadfast Intellect is the attaining of Brahma state and there is no relapse of delusion for such a person One attaining to the steady Intellect or Brahma state (realization) up to the time of leaving the body acquires union with the Supreme Lord or Nirwan

C/o Yoga Vasisht, II—10—21 “That supreme bliss is called Nirwan by which the being is freed from rebirth and death for ever. It is attainable by knowledge alone and from nothing else ”

Koorm I—3—12 “The faithful (person), engaged in any one stage and following it properly up to the time of death, attains to immortality ”

Koorm II—10—11 “This is supreme liberation (moksha) and my best union , the wise know it as the only one Brahma Nirwan.

Thus ends chapter II called the Wisdom Path.

CHAPTER III.

ACTION PATH

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter deals with Action Path (Karma Yoga), and shows its necessity, advantages and consequences.

There are two goals, knowledge and action paths from the beginning of the world. Mere renunciation of action can not lead to knowledge and salvation and it is also impracticable. It is necessary to perform action for the following reasons:—

- (a) Maintenance of the world;
- (b) Propitiation of the deities,
- (c) Maintenance of body and life;
- (d) Guidance of the ignorant;
- (e) Attainment of knowledge,
- (f) Freedom from bondage.

But action should ever be performed as a duty without attachment and desire for fruits i.e. by abandoning egoism and resigning the fruit to the Lord as an act of his worship. Every one is led to act by his nature or inherited tendency of past karmas (called destiny) and no one can go against it. There is however, scope for personal will and exertion by becoming indifferent to desires and aversions, pleasures and pain caused by action or contact of sense organs with sense objects. It is these desires and pleasures that cause delusion and envelope the self knowledge. They can be overcome by control of the sense organs. When this control is acquired one attains to self knowledge and liberation.

This chapter thus teaches Karma Yoga on the analogy of the Mimansa scripture which says that it is only by performing Vedic sacrifices that one can obtain heaven, bliss and salvation and that the universe is maintained by the sacrifice which is all in all.

१-ज्यायसी चेत्कर्मणस्ते मता बुद्धिर्जनार्दन ।
तत्किं कर्मणि घोरं मां नियोजयसि केशव ॥

पदच्छेद

Word-meaning

ज्यायसी; चेत्, कर्मणः, ते, } Is superior, if, action, by thee,

तत्, किम्, कर्मणि, घोरं, then, how, in action, fearful,
माम्, नियोजयसि, केशव ॥ me, inducest, thou, Krishna.

ARJUNA SAID

Translation—If it is held by thee Janardana that knowledge is superior to action, then how thou Keshava inducest me to fearful action?

NOTE—In chapter II it was at first declared that self knowledge leads to salvation and then when describing steadfast Buddhi it was pointed out that the performance of action by abandonment of attachment and desires leads to bliss and Nirvan. This teaching of Pravartic and Nirvartic or action and knowledge makes the mind doubtful whether the action path is superior to renunciation of actions

२-व्यामिश्रेणेव वाक्येन बुद्धिं मोहयसीव मे ।
तदेकं वद निश्चित्य येन श्रेयोऽहमाप्नुयाम् ॥

व्यामिश्रेण, इव, वाक्येन, } Mixed, as if, with words,

तत्, एकम्, वद्, निश्चित्य, | that, one, say, certain,
 येन, श्रेयः, अहम्, आप्नुयाम् || by which, good, I obtain.

Translation—As if with mixed words thou confusest my intellect. Say that one certain (thing) by which I may obtain the good

NOTE—The combination of knowledge and action is perplexing and incomprehensible. There can be only one salvation path and that should be made clear

३-लोकैऽस्मिन्द्विविधानिष्ठा पुराप्रोक्ता मया न घ
 ज्ञानयोगेन सांख्यानं कर्मयोगेन योगिनाम् ॥

Word-meaning.

लोके, अस्मिन्, द्विविधा, निष्ठा,		In world, in this, two kinds,
पुरा, प्रोक्ता, मया, अनघ ।		paths,
ज्ञान-योगेन, सांख्यानम्,	}	knowledge-path, of wise,
कर्म-योगेन, योगिनाम् ॥		action-path, of meditator

THE LORD SAID

Translation—Arjuna, in this world two kinds of paths have been declared by me before—the knowledge path of the wise and the action path of the yogee.

NOTE—At creation Brahma produced two classes of sages (a) Sanaka, etc., and caused them to adopt Nirvartik Dharma, the religion of Renunciation, characterised by knowledge and indifference

- to worldly objects and (b) Bhṛigu etc. and caused them to adopt Pravartī Dharma, the religion of activity. Thus there are two knowledge and action paths from the very beginning of the world. The Vedas and śāstras also teach the same two fold paths leading to the same goal or mukti.

Matsya LII-2, "Lord Janardan in the form of a fish has explained at length the Karma Yoga and Sāṅkhya Yoga to Manu the illustrious son of Vivasvat at the time the world was inundated with water "

४-न कर्मणामनारम्भान्नैष्कर्म्यं पुरुषोऽश्नुते ।

नैष्कर्म्यम्, पुरुषः, अश्नुते ।
न, च, संन्यसनात्, एव,	} not, and, by renunciation, alone,
सिद्धिम्, समधिगच्छति ॥

Translation—Man enjoys not freedom by not doing actions, nor does he achieve success by renunciation alone.

NOTE—A man can not be liberated from pain by performing no actions or attain to (mokṣa) salvation by renunciation of actions.

५-न हि कश्चित् क्षणमपि जातु तिष्ठत्यकर्मकृत् ।

कार्यते, हि, अवशः, कर्म, | are performed, for forcibly,
सर्वः, प्रकृति-जैः, गुणैः ॥ | actions,
all, nature, born, by qualities.

Translation—For none can even for a moment remain without doing actions, 'or all actions are forcibly performed by the qualities born of nature.

NOTE—No one in any condition can live without action which every one is forced to perform by the nature of his past Karmas called Destiny or Prarabdha

६-कर्मैन्द्रियाणि संयम्य य आस्ते मनसा स्मरन् ।
इन्द्रियार्थान्विमूढात्मा मिथ्याचारः स उच्यते ॥

कर्म-इन्द्रियाणि, संयम्य, | Action-organs, having stop-

इन्द्रिय-अर्थान्, विमूढ-आत्मा | sense-objects deluded-person;
मिथ्या-आचारः, स, उच्यते ॥ | false-conduct, that, is called.

Translation—Who having stopped the action organs sits thinking of these objects with his mind, that deluded person is called of false conduct (hypocrite).

NOTE—Simply stopping the action organs without controlling the mind is not sanyas (renunciation). It means nothing and does not lead to moksha.

७-यस्त्विन्द्रियाणि मनसा नियम्यारभतेऽर्जुन ।

कर्मैन्द्रियैः कर्मयोगमसक्तः स विशिष्यते ॥

यः, तु, इन्द्रियाणि, मनसा, | Who, but, senses, by mind,

कर्म इन्द्रियैः, कर्म-योगम्, | by action-senses, action-medi-
असक्तः, सः, विशिष्यते ॥ | tation, unattached, he, is great.

Translations—Arjuna ! but who, controlling the senses by the mind, performs Karma Yoga with action senses, unattached, he is great.

NOTE—But performance of actions without attachment and desires with control of mind and senses is Karma Yoga, and leads to liberation.

८-नियतं कुरु कर्म त्वं कर्म ज्यायो ह्यकर्मणः

न, प्रसिद्ध्येत्, अकर्मणः ॥	body-pilgrimage, even, and,
	thy,
	not, will succeed, by inaction

Translation—Per<sup>o</sup>om the prescribed actions, for action is superior to inaction. Even thy bodily pilgrimage will not succeed by inaction.

NOTE—Performance of action is better than non-performance, even the body can not be maintained without the exercise of sense organs, viz:—eating, breathing etc.

C/o Ishabas 2—"One should desire to live for 100 years by performing actions. There is no other path for thee. Action taints not man."

Mahabharata, III—32—8 "If a creature acts not, its course of life is impossible and therefore in case of a creature there must be action."

६-यज्ञार्थात्कर्मणोऽन्यत्रलोकोऽयं कर्मबन्धनः।

तद्-अर्थम्, कर्म, कौन्तेय,	that-purpose, action, Arjuna,
मुक्त-संगः, समाचर ॥	freed-attachment, perform.

Translation—This world is bound by actions other than the actions for the sake of sacrifice. Arjuna, perform action for that purpose, freed from attachment.

NOTE—All actions cause bondage with the world except those performed for sacrifice or without attachment and desire for fruits & e for the sake of the Lord, or in Brahm resignation & e actions performed for all purposes cause
• bondage except as worship of the Lord

१०-सहयज्ञाः प्रजाः सृष्ट्वा पुरोवाच प्रजापतिः ।

Translation—Having formerly created the beings with sacrifice the Lord of beings (Brahma) said “you shall increase by this and let this be your coveted hamdhuk.

NOTE—Brahma created beings by performing austerity (or sacrifice) and decreed that they should pro-pagate and attain to heaven also by performing sacrificial actions.

C/o. Prashna, I—4 "The Lord of creatures desirous of creation performed austerity and then created food and life (matter, spirit) thinking that these will create many beings for me."

White Yajur Veda, XXI—7 "I may ascend the godly ship for liberation that is free from defect and leaketh not, and moved by a hundred oars."

११-देवान्भावयतानेन ते देवा भावयन्तु वः।

परस्परम्, भावयन्तः,	}	each other, pleasing,
श्रेयः, परम, अवाप्स्यथ ॥		good, supreme, shall attain

Translation—You please the deities from this, and these deities please you. Thus pleasing each other you shall attain to the supreme good.

NOTE—a) The deities enjoy sacrifice and being pleased grant heaven and other rewards to their worshippers. The mutual service is thus advantageous to both.

(b) The presiding deities gratified by the sacrifice also make the sense organs act properly and this leads the sacrificer to bliss and salvation.

While Yajur Veda, III—49 “Fly away spoon and completely filled fly thou back to us. O Satakratu ! let us both • barter our food and strength like goods I give thee gifts, thou give me I bestow on thee and thou bestow on me Present thy merchandise to me and I will give thee by wares. ”

Mahabharat, III—150—28 “From the Vedas the sacrifices and from the sacrifices are the gods established. The gods are maintained by the sacrifices prescribed by the Vedas and shastras.

Mahabharat, XIII—97—6 “Do thou also learn from me that the deities are always pleased with sacrifices and men are gratified with hospitality Therefore the house-holder should gratify them with such objects as they desire ” them,

यः, भुङ्क्ते, स्तेनः, एव, सः, | who, enjoys, thief, verily, he.

Translation—Pleased with the sacrifice, the deities will give you the wished for enjoyments.

He who enjoys their gift without offering to them is verily a thief.

NOTE—When deities are pleased with sacrifice they bestow all sorts of desired blessings on their votaries. But those who perform no sacrifice and enjoy the godly blessings suffer pain and go to hell as who gratify the craving of the body and senses without discharging the debt due to the presiding deities commit sin.

१३-यज्ञशिष्टाशिनः सन्तो मुच्यन्ते सर्वकिल्बिषैः ।

ये, पचन्ति, आत्मकारणात् ॥ | who, cook, for themselves.

Translation—The sages eating the remnant of sacrifice are absolved from all sins while they who cook for themselves eat the fearful sins.

NOTE—The performers of sacrificial actions attain to salvation while the non-sacrificers fall into bondage.

C/o Mahabharat, III—2—57 “None should cook food for himself alone, nor kill an animal without devoting it to deities, pitris and guests.”

१४-अन्नाद्भवन्ति भूतानि पर्जन्यादन्न सम्भवः।

} from rain, food grown,

} from sacrifice, is born, rain,

} sacrifice, action-born.

Translation—Beings grow from food, the food grows from rain, the rain is born from sacrifice and the sacrifice is born from action.

NOTE—Beings are produced from food eaten by parents, rain is the producer of food, and sacrifice is the cause of rain by pleasing the cloud-god and the sacrifice is creation action. Thus all beings grow from and are maintained by sacrificial action

C/o V shnu, 11—9—8 "From rain grows food and from food the whole world subsists "

Manu S III—76 "The offering thrown into the fire reaches the sun, from the sun comes rain, from rain food and from that (food) all creatures."

तस्मात्, सर्वगतम्, ब्रह्म,	therefore, all-pervading,
नित्यम्, यज्ञे, प्रतिष्ठितम् ॥	Brahma , ever, in sacrifice, dwelling

Translation—Know the action to be Brahma born and the Brahma from the imperishable born, Therefore the all pervading Brahma is ever dwelling in sacrifice.

NOTE—(a) The creation arises from Brahma who comes from the Supreme Imperishable Lord. Thus everything is traceable to sacrifice and the whole universe (Brahmand) is maintained by it.

(b) The rituals are prescribed by the Vedas which are the word of the Supreme Lord and deal chiefly with sacrifice as the means of maintaining the world and achieving all ends

१६-एवं प्रवर्तितं चक्रं नानुवर्तयतीह यः ।

अघ-आयुः, इन्द्रिय-आरामः, } sinful-life, sense-enjoyment, मोघम्, पार्थ, स, जीवति ॥ } in vain, Arjuna, he, lives.

Translation—Who does not follow here (in this world) the wheel thus revolving, Parth ! he lives in vain a life of sin and sensual enjoyments

NOTE—One who does not perform the sacrificial action by which the world is maintained wastes his life in sinful sensual pleasures ;
i. e. does not attain to knowledge and freedom from bondage

कर्ता, अहम्, इति, मन्यते ॥		doer, I, thus, thinks

Translation—All actions are performed by the qualities of nature, but the man deluded by egoism thinks thus 'I am the doer.'

NOTE—Actions are performed by the qualities of nature (tendency of the past karmas) but the man through egoism considers himself to be their cause and thus attaches himself to these actions and expects the fruit thereof. Atma is non-doer but through the gunas is deluded and regards himself as the doer.

C/o Bhagavat, III 28 6 " Thinking thus of the body, inspite of the performance of the actions by the qualities of nature this Purusha regards himself as the doer."

CHAPTER IV.

KNOWLEDGE-PATH.

(INTRODUCTION.)

This Chapter describes that the self knowledge is very old and has been handed down from the ancient sages for the good of the world. The Soul is eternal but undergoes transmigration in different forms. When virtue fails and vice prevails, great Souls or sages are born to re-establish the one and destroy the other.

All the paths lead to the same goal but the Lord awards the fruit according to the quality of worship. The seekers of desires fall into delusion and bondage while the divine worshippers by Brahma resignation attain to knowledge and salvation. The different kinds of actions of men are shaped by nature or the qualities of their past Karmas, but they can exert themselves by renouncing attachments and self interest. This is action with inaction (renunciation) i.e. performance of Karma Yoga and Sanyas which are one and the same and lead to the same end. There are different kinds of sacrifices or actions for worship of the Lord :—

- (a) Devotion sacrifice ;
- (b) Worship sacrifice ,
- (c) Self control sacrifice ;
- (d) Performance of action sacrifice ;

- (e) Yoga practice sacrifice ,
- (f) Nyat Karma sacrifice ,
- (g) Pranayam sacrifice , and
- (h) Knowledge sacrifice.

All these sacrifices lead to salvation but the knowledge sacrifice is the foremost of all. It (knowledge) should be acquired by discipleship from a learned teacher and it is also attained by performance of Karma Yoga in course of time. This knowledge leads to freedom from pleasure and pain, realisation and union with the Supreme Lord. Even a sinner by acquiring knowledge becomes saint and free. Faith, devotion, and self control are the surest pass-ports to knowledge, bliss and Nirvan.

This chapter thus teaches Karma Yoga on the analogy of Gyan teaching of Sunkhya and Nayaya Philosophy of Gautama the principal doctrines of which (Nayaya), are noted below :—

- (1) The fruits of good and bad actions are pleasure and pain ,
- (2) The knowledge of truth leads to supreme bliss and release from all pain ,
- (3) Self control and meditation lead to liberation by renunciation of the world and cessation of all activity ,
- (4) Universe is formed by collection of small particles of matter called atoms through vibrations caused by the Supreme spirit.

तानि, अहम्, वेद, सर्वाणि,	them, I, know, all,
न, त्वम्, वेत्थ, परन्तप ॥ not, thing knowest, Arjuna.

THE LORD SAID

Translation—Arjuna ' many births of mine and thine have passed. I know them all but thou Parantap knowest not.

NOTE—The Soul being subject to transmigration constantly undergoes births The sages remember the past births and experiences while the ordinary beings don't remember the same.

६-अजेऽपि सन्नव्ययात्मा भूतानामिश्वरोऽपि सन्न
प्रकृतिं स्वामधिष्ठाय संभवाख्यात्ममायया ॥

अजः, अपि, सन्, अव्यय-आत्मा	unborn, though, being imperishable-Soul,

मम, वर्त्म, अनुवर्तन्ते,	} my, path, follow,
मनुष्याः, पार्थ, सर्वश ॥

men, Arjuna, on all sides,

Translation—Who approach me as, so also I remember them. Partha ! men follow my path on all sides \

NOTE—In whatever way men worship the Lord, he rewards them or fulfils their desires accordingly, as all paths lead to him alone i.e. the men obtain the fruit according to their actions or worship. The seekers of pleasure attain to pleasure, and the seekers of liberation to liberation. The rewarder of fruit is the same.

- The quality of fruit depends on the quality of action i.e. the result differs in kind and intensity according to their devotion and worship.

१२-कांक्षन्तः कर्मणां सिद्धिं यजन्त इह देवताः ।

यजन्ते, इह, देवताः ।
क्षिप्रम्, हि, मानुषे, लोके,	} soon, for, in men, in world,
सिद्धिः, भवति, कर्म-जा ॥

Translation—The seekers of success in action worship the deities here ; for in the world of men, the success born of action accrues soon.

NOTE—The seekers of worldly success etc perform rituals to different deities and easily attain to their desires as the fruit of action accrues soon. It is liberation and Nirwan that take a long time (B. G. VII—19)

C/o. Chhandogya, I—3—12 "The speaker of desires obtains the fruit of whatever desires he seeks and in the end thinks and worships the Soul"

१३-चातुर्वर्ण्यं मया सृष्टं गुण कर्म विभागशः ।

तस्य, कर्तारम्, अपि, माम्,	} of that, doer, also, me, } know, non-doer, imperishable
विद्धि, अकर्तारम्, अव्ययम् ॥

Translation—The four castes were created by me with the difference of qualities of actions, know me the doer of that also as the non-doer and imperishable.

NOTE—The four kinds of actions (Sattva, Rajas, Tamas and Asuri) are shaped by the qualities of the past Karmas or nature, but there is a scope for exertion of the personal will in renouncing attachment and desires and thus attaining to salvation.

C/o. Rig Veda, X—90—12 "The Brahman was his mouth, the Kshatriya was made from his two arms, his waist became the Vaishya and the Shudra was produced from his feet.”

Also see B G XVIII—41 to 44 for the duties of the four castes.

 कवयः, अपि, अत्र, मोहिताः | wise, even, in this, puzzled ;
 तत्, ते, कर्म, प्रवक्ष्यामि, | that, thee, action, I shall tell,
 which, knowing, shalt be यत्, ज्ञात्वा, मोक्षयसे, अशुभात् ॥ freed, from evil

Translation—What is action and what is inaction—in this even the wise are puzzled. I shall tell thee that action by knowing which thou shalt be freed from evil (bondage).

NOTE—Even the wise find it very difficult to make clear distinction between action and inaction (freedom from action). The action path leading to salvation is now to be described.

C/o. Niralamba 23—"Inaction is the performance of action without any desire for fruit, while action is the serving of the sense objects by the sense organs"

१७-कर्मणो ह्यपि बोद्धव्यं बोद्धव्यं च विकर्मणः

कर्म-जान्, विद्धि, तान्, सर्वान्, action-born, know, them, all, एवम्, ज्ञात्वा, विमोक्ष्यसे ॥ thus, knowing, shalt be liberated.

Translation—Thus many kinds of sacrifices are spread in the Brahma mouth. Know them all as action born, and thus knowing thou shalt be liberated.

NOTE—(a) The Vedic hymns are full of sacrificial rituals and by their performance one attains to freedom from bondage.

(b) There are many kinds of sacrifices forming Karma Yoga (action path) and performance of such action leads directly to the Supreme Lord

C/o. Mundak, I—2—1. "The pious rites, which the wise saw in the Vedas were spread in many ways in the Treta Age. Practise them constantly ye seekers of piety. This is your path to the pious world "

Translation—Knowing which, Arjuna ! thou shalt not again attain to such delusion and by which thou shalt see all beings in thyself and in me.

NOTE—On attainment of knowledge one is freed from delusion and attains to equality of vision i. e. realizes the Soul to be all in all,

C/o Ishavas, 6,7 "Who sees all things in the self and the self in all things, he is not deluded for that reason "

"When to the wise the self has become all things, what delusion and what sorrow can be then
• to him who sees unity."

Mundak, III—1—3 "When the Seer sees the Person, the self illuminated, the Creator and the origin of Brahma, that wise then casting off merit and demerit becomes cleansed and attains the highest quality.”

Translation—Arjuna ! As burning fire makes the fuel like ashes, so the knowledge fire makes all actions like ashes.

NOTE—As fire destroys fuel so the knowledge destroys the evil (bondage) of actions

C/o. Chhandogya, V—24—3 “As the tuft of the Isika reed cast into fire is reduced to ashes, so indeed are burnt all his sins who knowing the Lord thus offers an Agnihotra ”

Vishnu, VI—7—73. “In the same manner that a blazing fire fanned by the wind burns up dry wood, so does Vishnu enshrined in the heart of the Yogees (burns up) all sins.”

Bhagavat, XI—14—19. “As the fire speedily consumes the wood, so my devotion destroys all the sins ”

Translation—The unknowing, the faithless, and the suspicious minded is destroyed. This world is not, nor the other, nor happiness for the suspicious minded.

NOTE—Without faith and knowledge and calmness of mind, a person can not be happy and attain to success in this world or here after.

Kathballi, I—2—24 “One who has not ceased from wicked conduct, who is not tranquil, who is not self contained and whose mind is not at rest, does not obtain (the Lord) even by intellect”

Mahabharat, III—200—110. “The men of old distinguished for their knowledge have said that neither this world nor the next, nor the bliss can be his who is disturbed by doubt. A belief of one's identity with the Supreme Soul is the indication of salvation.”

Translation—Dhananjaya ! actions bind not the mind-controlled, renouncer of actions by Yoga and the destroyer of doubts by knowledge.

NOTE—The performer of actions by abandonment of attachment (Karma Yogee), the destroyer of delusion by attainment of knowledge (Sanyasi), and the controller of mind (Abhyas Yogee) are freed from bondage.

C/o Kathball, II—3—15. "When in the world all the knots of the heart are cut, the mortal becomes immortal."

४२-तस्मादज्ञानसंभूतं हृत्स्थं ज्ञानासिनात्मनः ।

Arjuna.

Translation—Therefore by the sword of self knowledge having cut this doubt born of ignorance and dwelling in the heart, Arjuna rise and engage in Yoga.

NOTE—The delusion or wavering (Bhrama) of the mind is all destroyed on attainment of knowledge by performance of the Karma Yoga which should therefore be practised by all.

C/o. Mundak, II—2—8 “The knots of the heart are cut, all doubts dissolved and the actions destroyed when the lower and higher (knowledge) is attained.”

Bhagavat, I—2—15. “Why one should not love to hear about the Lord by the sword of whose Yoga the wise men forth with cut the knots of action bondage”

Thus ends chapter IV called the knowledge Path.

CHAPTER V. RENUNCIATION PATH

(INTRODUCTION) . .

The Sanyas is renunciation of pleasure and pain and not that of action. The Yoga is performance of action by abandonment of attachment and desire for fruits. The goal of both Sanyas and Yoga is knowledge, and liberation (moksha or salvation). Therefore a wise man should regard them as equal and leading to the same end.

But Sanyas (renunciation of pleasure and pain) is hard and can not be attained at once, while Karma Yoga (acting without attachment and desire) by devotion to the Lord is very simple and soon leads to knowledge, freedom from pleasure and pain and bliss as a matter of course and without any further exertions.

Attachment is egoism or regarding one self as the doer of actions. Desire for fruit is expectation of reward for one's actions. They are abandoned by regarding the Supreme Lord as the accomplisher of all things and performing actions for his sake as an act of his worship; i.e. resign the authorship of action and fruit thereof to the Lord.

By performing actions in this way i.e. without attachment and desire for fruit, one is purified from delusion, attains to knowledge, control of mind, freedom from pleasure and pain, equality, bliss, liberation and Nirvan.

This chapter thus treats of Karma Yoga on the analogy of Sanyas as taught by Sankhya, Nyaya and Vasheshik Systems, all of which teach the doctrine of release or moksha through self knowledge and renunciation of the worldly objects. By controlling the sense organs and making the mind steady in self knowledge, enjoyments and aversions are suppressed, distractions cease, and the soul is liberated from birth, death and all pain for ever.

ARJUNA SAID.

Translation—Krishna ! thou praisest renunciation of action and again (Kârma) Yoga. Tell me that one which is better of these two with certainty.

NOTE—Chapter IV dealt with Karma Yoga on the analogy of knowledge path and hence there is the same objection and criticism as in Chapter III—1 & 2.

तयोः, तु, कर्म-संन्यासात्, } of these two, but, action-कर्म-योगः, विशिष्यते ॥ } renunciation ; action-path, is greater.

THE LORD SAID.

Translation—Renunciation (Sanyas) and action path are both good doers But of these two, the action path is greater than the renunciation of action.

NOTE—Karma Yoga (action path) and Sanyas (renunciation) are both good and lead to salvation, but the former is superior to the latter as explained in verse 6.

३-ज्ञेयः स नित्यसंन्यासी यो न द्वेष्टि न कांक्षति ।

निर्द्वन्द्वः, हि, महाबाहो,	pairless, for, Arjuna ,
सुखम्, बंधात्, प्रमुच्यते ॥	easily, from bondage, is freed

Translation—He should be known as ever renouncer who neither avers nor desires; for Arjuna ! the pairless (without pleasure and pain etc.) is easily freed from bondage.

NOTE—Sanyas is not renunciation of actions but simply abandonment of desires and aversion, pleasure and pain and, thereby it leads to liberation or Moksha.'

C/o. Mahabharat, XIV—19—5 "He is liberated in every way, who does not covet what belongs to another, who does not disregard others, who transcends all pairs of opposites and whose soul is free from attachments."

४-सांख्ययोगौ पृथग्बालाः प्रवदन्ति न पण्डिताः।

एकम्, अपि, आस्थितः,	one, even, follower,
सम्यक्, उभयोः, विन्दते, फलम्॥	proper, both, obtains, fruit.

Translation—Children and not the wise speak of Sanayas and (Karma) Yoga as distinct. The proper follower if even one, obtains the fruits of both.

NOTE—The Karma Yoga is the performance of action, without attachments and desire for fruit and this leads to knowledge and salvation. Sanyas is the renunciation of pleasure and pain which also lead to knowledge and liberation. Thus the end of both paths is the same and the successful follower of either attains to the goal of both viz, knowledge and salvation.

५-यत्सांख्यैः प्राप्यते स्थानं तद्योगैरपि गम्यते ।

एकं सांख्यं च योगं च यः पश्यति स पश्यति ॥

पदच्छेद

Word meaning

यत्, सांख्यैः, प्राप्यते, स्थानम्, What, by Sanyasi, is reached, place, तत्, योगैः, अपि, गम्यते । that, by Yogee, also is reached;
एकम्, सांख्यम्, च, योगम्, | one, Sanyas, and, yoga,
च, यः, पश्यति, सः, पश्यति ॥ and, who, sees, he, sees.

Translation—What place is reached by the Sanyasi (renouncer) that is also reached by the Yogee. He sees (is wise) who sees the Sanyas and Karma) Yoga to be one.

NOTE—As shown in the last verse, the goal of Sankhya and Yoga being the same viz:, knowledge and liberation, the wise regards them both equally i. e. as the means of the same end.

C/o. Koorma, II—2—42. "Whatever a Yogee gets that is also obtained by a Gyanee (Sanyasi). The Yoga and Gyan are one, he who sees that is the knower of truth."

योग-युक्तः, मुनिः, ब्रह्म,	}	yoga -perfected, sage, Lord, not, delay, reaches
न, चिरेण, अधिगच्छति ॥

Translation—Arjuna ' Sanyas is difficult to attain without Yoga but the Yoga perfected sage reaches Brahma without delay.

NOTE—A Yogee performs action without attachment i.e. out of devotion or for the sake of the Lord and by so doing attains to knowledge and peace (freedom from pleasure and pain) and salvation. Thus Karma Yoga is simple and easy, and leads to the Lord, while without its aid it is difficult to achieve Sanyas (abandonment of pleasure and pain)

G/o Matsya, LII—5 and 6 “Repeat the Karma Yoga taught by Vishnu. With Karma Yoga, because Gyan Yoga is produced by Karma Yoga one attains to final emancipation. The divine knowledge of Brahma springs from Karma Yoga and Gyan combined. Gyan Yoga in its true state does not rise without Karma Yoga,”

Yoga Vasishtha, I—1—7. "Action and knowledge are both necessary for attainment of salvation as are the two wings of a bird for flying "

७-योगयुक्तो विशुद्धात्मा विजितात्मा जितेन्द्रियः

सर्व-भूत-आत्म-भूत-आत्मा, { all-creation soul-being-his,
कुर्वन्, अपि, न, लिप्यते ॥ { acting, even, not, is, tainted.

Translation—The Yoga perfected, purified in heart, of subdued mind and controlled senses (regarding) all creatures as his soul is not tainted even by acting.

NOTE—A person successful in Karma Yoga is purified in heart (freed from delusion) acquires control of his mind and senses, attains to equality or steadiness in self (realizes the Soul) and thus easily obtains salvation.

C/o. Mahabharata, XIV—19—2. "That man, who is freed of all, who endures all, who is possessed of equality, who has conquered his senses, who is devoid of fear and anger and who is of restrained mind, succeeds in liberating him self.

Koorma, I—3—22 “By action are destroyed the present and past sins, the mind becomes cheerful and the man becomes the knower of Brahma”

Translation—Who performs actions by dwelling in the Lord by abandoning attachment, he is not tainted by sin as a lotus leaf by water.

NOTE—One who performs action without attachment and desires for the sake of the Supreme Lord does not fall into bondage or delusion

U/ô Chhandogyâ, IV—14—3 “As water wets not, a lotus leaf, so do evil deeds attach not to him who knows him (Brahmâ) thus ”

Koorma, I—3—14 —“One resigning action to Brahma by performing it without attachment, without desire and also with cheerful mind, attains to that goal ”

न, कर्म-फल-संयोगम्,	}	of world, creates, Lord
स्वभावः, तु, प्रवर्तते ॥		not, action-fruit-union, nature, but, does

Translation—The Lord creates neither the actions of the world nor performance, nor the union of action with fruit, but the nature does.

NOTE—The Atma does not create action nor the performer (agency) nor unites the performer of action with its result. It is the nature that is the source of all activity (cause, means and effect).

न, आदत्ते, कस्यचित्, पापम्	}	Not, takes, of any, evil,
न, च, एव, सुकृतम्, विभुः		not and, verily, goodness,
अज्ञानेन, आवृतम्, ज्ञानम्,	}	Lord,
तेन, मुह्यन्ति, जन्तवः ॥		by ignorance, covered, know- ledge, by that, are deluded, creatures.

Translation—The Lord takes not the good nor the evil of any one. The knowledge is covered by ignorance and by that the creatures are deluded.

NOTE—The Self performs no good or bad actions. They are performed by nature. It is through delusion that the mind confuses the self with the body and regards it as the doer.

C/o Mundak III—1—9 “This subtle soul should be known with the mind in which five fold life breaths enter—the mind in which the life breaths of all beings are pervaded on being purified illumines that Atma”

Bhagvat, XI—2—3 “Know that the knowledge the cause of liberation and delusion the cause of bondage of the beings are my eternal powers and they are both created by my Maya”

Koorma, II—2—38 “There is knowledge and delusion or instability. The knowledge is enveloped in the world by ignorance and he (man) is deluded by that”

whose, destroyed, by soul,

तेषाम्, आदित्य-वत् ज्ञानम्, } their, sun-like, knowledge, प्रकाशयति, तत्, परम् । } illumines, that, supreme.

Translation—But (the men) whose ignorance is destroyed by the soul-knowledge, their knowledge like the sun illumines that supreme.

NOTE—But when the delusion of the mind is destroyed by attainment of knowledge like the darkness dispelled on the appearance of the sun, then one realizes the true nature of the Self

Mahabharat II—11—16 “When a man has overcome the domain of delusion, his piety when consisting of the essence of spiritual wisdom turns to the spiritual enlightenment which illumines the intelligence of sentient beings.”

Bhagavat, I—3—34 “When the delusive maya which causes delusion is destroyed by the Brahma Vidya, then the Jiva attains to Brahma state and dwells in Supreme peace,”

Yoga Vasishtha II—4—9 “On the attainment of the knowledge, the principle object of life, there arises the Brahma bliss cool like the moon and greater than happiness”

Atma Bodha—4 “When the ignorance which craves for earthly affection is removed the Soul by its own supreme light shines forth in an unstained state as the sun spreads its effulgence when the cloud is dispelled.

Atma Bodha—43 “The darkness is first dispelled by the dawn of knowledge and then the Soul shines, forth as the rising sun follows the dawn of day ”

Atma Badha—67. “When the Sun of spiritual knowledge arises in the sky of the heart it dispels the darkness, it pervades all, comprehends all and illumines all ”

Translation—That which unattached to external contacts ( objects ) finds the happiness in self, that mind engaged in Brahma meditation enjoys the imperishable bliss.

NOTE—A person who leaves off sensual objects, engages in self meditation and then enjoys eternal bliss

C/o. Kathball, II-1-2 "Men of little sense pursue outward objects of desires and so they are caught in the snares of desire spread out on all sides, on the other hand the wisemen knowing immortality to be permanent do not desire anything out of fleeting objects "

Atma Bodh, 51 "Having renounced that pleasure which arises from external perishable objects and enjoying spiritual delight, he is serene as the taper under cover and he rejects "

Translation—For the enjoyments, which are contact born are verily the wombs of pain, They have a beginning and end and Arjuna the wise enjoys them not.

NOTE—The enjoyments of the worldly objects are of transitory nature and the cause of all pain and suffering and they should therefore be renounced by the wise

CHAPTER VI. MEDITATION PATH

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter describes what is Yoga, how it is attained and what it leads to. Yoga is the engagement in meditation action. It leads to knowledge, stability and calmness of mind and liberation. The controlling of the mind is very important as it results in salvation while an uncontrolled mind causes bondage. One should engage in Soul contemplation by retiring to a sacred, solitary place and there overcoming all distractions with erect and easy posture, controlling the mind in Soul meditation, performing all bodily actions regularly. This purifies the heart, overcomes distractions and leads to supreme bliss.

The mind is fickle and obstinate, but can be controlled by gradual practice and dispassion (abhyas and vairag). There can be no success in Yoga without control of the mind. But a Yoga failure is not quite lost. After enjoying happiness according to his deeds, he is born in a pious, holy or wise family and there recovers the knowledge gained in the previous birth and also being drawn by the former practice again exerts towards further progress till he achieves success in Yoga and attains to full salvation.

This chapter thus teaches Karma Yoga (action-path) on the analogy of Pa'anjali Yoga, the fundamental doctrines of which are sketched below:—

- (1) The Yoga (meditation) is the chief means by which the Soul can be completely united with the Supreme Lord and secure salvation,
- (2) There are many souls consisting of pure intelligence and of the nature of the Supreme Lord;
- (3) The Yoga is control of the functions of the mind by Abhyas and Vairagya (practice and dispassion);
- (4) The mind is fitted for Yoga by following the eight means of Yam and Niyam etc.

श्री भगवानुवाच

१-अनाश्रितः कर्मफलं कार्यं कर्म करोति यः ।

स संन्यासी च योगी च न निरग्निर्न चाक्रियः ॥

पदच्छेद

Word meaning:

अनाश्रितः, कर्म-फलम्,	Without-expecting, action-
कार्यम्, कर्म, करोति, यः ।	fruits,
सः, संन्यासी, च, योगी,	right, action, performs, who;
च, न, निरग्निः, न, च, अक्रियः ॥	he, renouncer, and, meditator, and, not, without fire, not, and without action.

THE LORD SAID

Translation—Who performs righteous actions, without expecting action fruits, he is a sanyasi and Yogee and not one without fire and without action.

NOTE—A person performing his duty without desire for fruits is both a Yogee and Sanyasi. The one who performs no sacrifice or action is not a Yogee or Sanyasi. Agni hotra is a common sacrifice offered to fire both morning and evening.

२-यं संन्यासमिति प्राहुर्योगं तं विद्धि पाण्डव ।

न ह्यसंन्यस्तसंकल्पो योगी भवति कश्चन ॥

यम्, संन्यासम्, इति, प्राहुः,	What, renunciation, as, called,

न, हि, असंन्यस्त-संकल्पः,	} not, for, without renouncing,
योगी, भवति, कश्चन ॥
	} meditator, becomes, any.

Translation—Arjuna ! what is called Sanyas know that as Yoga for none becomes a Yogee without renouncing thoughts.

NOTE—Sanyas is attainment of knowledge and tranquility through abandonment of all passions. This is also the aim and object of Yoga by which all thoughts of egoism and desires are discarded.

३-आरुरुक्षोर्मुनेर्योगं कर्म कारणमुच्यते ।

योगारूढस्य तस्यैव शमः कारणमुच्यते ॥

पदच्छेद

Word-meaning

आरुरुक्षोः, मुनेः, योगं, action, means, is called;

योग-आरूढस्य, तस्य, एव,
शमः, कारणम्, उच्यते ॥

[meditation-perfected, his, alone, tranquility, means, is called.

Translation—For a sage seeking to rise in Yoga action is called the means, and of him perfected in Yoga tranquility alone is called the means.

NOTE—Yoga begins by performance of actions without attachment and desire for fruits. On its accomplishment the Yogee requires tranquility or freedom from distractions for realization and moksha. Thus the first stage of Yoga is action and the second stage tranquility or peace.

C/o Mahabharat, XII—175—37 “For a Brahman there is no wealth equal to oneness, evenness, steadiness and gradual withdrawal from all actions ”

४-यदा हि नेन्द्रियार्थेषु न कर्मस्वनुषज्जन्ते ।

योग-आरूढः, तदा, उच्यते ॥		all-desires-renouncer, meditation-perfected, then, is called

Translation—When (one) is not attached to sense objects nor to action and is the renouncer of all desires then he is called Yoga perfected.

NOTE—Perfection in Yoga means abandonment of all attachments or egoism and discarding of desires for action fruits or pleasure and pain.

C/o Mahabharat, XII—177—25. “ O DESIRE ! I know where thy root lies Thou art born of thought I shall not think of thee and thou shalt cease to exist with thy root ”

५-उद्धरेदात्मनाऽऽत्मानं नात्मानमवसादयेत् ।

 आत्मा, एव, हि, आत्मनः, बन्धुः, | mind, alone, for, of self, friend
 आत्मा. एव, रिपुः आत्मनः ॥ mind, also, enemy, of self

Translation—(One) should raise the self by the mind and not lower the self, for mind alone is the friend of the self and the mind is also the enemy of the self

NOTE—A mind under control and engaged in meditation is a friend of the Soul by leading it to knowledge and salvation (Moksha) while a mind uncontrolled and unfit for meditation is a foe of the Soul as it causes bondage.

C/o Vishnu, VI—7—28. 'The mind of man is the cause of both of his bondage and his liberation, its addiction to the objects of senses is the means of its bondage and its separation from objects of senses is the means of his freedom'

६-बन्धुरात्माऽत्मनस्तस्य येनात्मैवात्मना जितः

अनात्मनस्तु शत्रुत्वे वर्तेतात्मैव शत्रुवत् ॥

बन्धुः, आत्मा, आत्मनः, तस्य, Friend, mind, of self, of that,

अनात्मन, तु, शत्रुत्वे, वर्तेत, uncontrolling soul, but, with आत्मा, एव, शत्रु, वत् ॥ enmity, treat, mind, very, foe, like.

Translation—The mind is verily the friend of that self of which the mind is controlled but the very mind treats the uncontrolling self like a foe with enmity.

NOTE—The controlled mind leads to knowledge and salvation and is therefore a friend of the soul while an uncontrolled mind runs after pleasure and pain and thus causes delusion and bondage and therefore harms the soul like an enemy

C/o Isha—3 “Those who kill the soul go on death to the world called asur (evil) covered with darkness”

Mahabharat, V—32—64 “That man who has conquered his self by means of self has his self for a friend, for one's self is ever one's friend or foe”

Vishnu, VI—7—28 “For men, mind alone is the cause of bondage as well as emancipation. The mind addicted to sense objects constitutes bondage and the mind when destitute thereof constitutes freedom”

Bhagavat, III—25—15 “The mind is the cause of liberation and bondage for the Jiva. The mind that attaches in objects causes bondage and that in the Lord liberation” equal earth-stone-gold.

Translation—The soul (person) satisfied with knowledge and wisdom, unshaken, sense controlled, equal to earth, stone and gold is thus called “a steady yogee”.

NOTE—A person who attains to knowledge and realization has his Senses controlled, indifferent to all worldly objects and of firm and equal thinking (tranquil) is a steady Yogee i. e.

- a mind controlled

O/q. Mahabharat, V—37—6 “He that never yields to anger, he that regards mud, stone and gold as of the same value, he that is above the grief, who is no longer in need of friendship and enmity, who disregards both praise and blame, who stands aloof from both agreeable and disagreeable like one withdrawn from the world, he is a Yogee of the Bhikshu order”

Mahabharat, III—1—25 “As water quenches fire so does true knowledge allay mental disquietude”

Markandeya, XLI—24. “Whose intellect has been purified, who considers a brick-bat and gold in the same light, who concentrating himself in all elements sees only the eternal and undecaying Brahma, the stay of all as existing, is never born again”

Translation—The equal knower of comrade, friend, foe, indifferent, neutral, hater, relation, sage and also of sinner is great.

NOTE—The steady (or tranquil) Yogee looks on all considering that there is the same Soul in all beings equally and attains to success

C/o. Mahabharat, XIV—19—4. “He is liberated who looks with an equal eye upon life and death, pleasure and pain, gain and loss and agreeable and disagreeable”

Yoga Vasishit, I—29—14 “The knower thinks of no pain or pleasure friend or foe, life or death,”

त्वत्-अन्यः संशयस्य, अस्य,	than thou-other, of doubts, its,
छेत्ता, न, हि, उपपद्यते ॥	destroyer, not, for, is found.

Translation—Krishna ! thou art fully able to cut this doubt of mine, for no other destroyer of this doubt is to be found than thee.

NOTE—The fate of the Yoga failure is difficult to understand without Brahma knowledge.

न, हि, कल्याण-कृत्, कश्चित्	destruction, his, there is,
दुर्गतिम्, तात, गच्छति ॥	not, for, right doer, any,
	evil-end, dear, comes

THE LORD SAID

Translation—Parth ! there is no destruction for him here, nor there, (my) dear ! no right doer comes to an evil end

NOTE—The Yoga failure suffers neither in this world nor in the other, but ultimately achieves success in Yoga as virtue is never lost.

४१-प्राप्यपुण्यकृतांल्लोकानुषित्वाशाश्वतीः समा

शुचीनाम्, श्रीमताम्, गेहे, | of holy, of rich, in house,
योग-भ्रष्टः, अभिजायते ॥ | meditation-failure, is reborn.

Translation—Obtaining the world of the right doers and dwelling (there) for everlasting time, the Yoga failure is reborn in the house of a holy and rich (person.)

NOTE—The Yoga failure at first goes to and enjoys heaven according to his deeds for a long time & is then reborn in a pious high family for making further progress in Yoga.

४२-अथवा योगिनामेव कुले भवति धीमताम् ।

एतत्, हि, दुर्लभ तरम्, | this, truly, very difficult-
लोके, जन्म, यत्, ईदृशम् ॥ | to obtain, in world, both, which, this.

Translation—Or he is born verily in the family of a wise Yogee, but such birth as this is truly very difficult to obtain in this world.

NOTE—Some times a Yoga failure is born in the family of a knowing Yogee but such births are scarce and possible only in the case of a person failing at the last moment of Yoga.

SUCCESS

शब्द-ब्रह्म-अति, वर्तते ॥	he, wishing to know, even, of meditation, word-Brahm-beyond, crosses.

Translation—He is also forcibly drawn by that former practice of (Yoga) and even the very “wisher of knowledge” crosses beyond the Brahma word (Vedic rituals)

NOTE—The Yoga failure is also impelled towards further exertion by his former practice of Yoga & in this way even a mere wisher of knowledge crosses beyond the Vedic rituals, i. e. is freed from the bondage or liberated.

४५-प्रयत्नाद्यतमानस्तु योगो संशुद्धकिल्बिषः ।

अनेक-जन्म-संसिद्धः, ततः, याति, परां, गतिं ॥

many-births-perfected,
then, attains, supreme, goal,

Translation—By exertion controlling the mind and purified from sin the Yogee is perfected in many births and then attains to supreme goal.

NOTE—By constant exertion the Yogee attains to control of mind and freedom from pleasure and pain till at last he obtains perfect success in Yoga and then he realizes the Supreme Reality

४६-तपस्विभ्योऽधिको योगी ज्ञानिभ्योऽपिमतोऽधिक

कर्मिभ्यः च, अधिकः, योगी,	than performer, and, greater, meditator,
तस्मात्, योगी, भव, अर्जुन॥	therefore, meditator, be, Arjuna

Translation—The Yogee is thought to be greater than an auster, even greater than the wise, and the Yogee is greater than (action) performer and therefore Arjuna be thou a Yogee

NOTE—As Yoga leads to the highest goal, it is superior to austerity, sacred study and sacrifice rituals. Therefore one must follow Yoga for salvation.

C/o. B G VIII—28

४७-योगिनामपि सर्वेषां मद्गतेनान्तरात्मना ।
श्रद्धावान्भजते यो मां स मे युक्ततमो मतः ॥

श्रद्धावान्, भजते, यः, मां, faithful, meditates, who, me, सः, मे, युक्ततमः, मतः ॥ he, me, best, Yogee, regarded.

Translation—Even of all the Yogees the faithful who meditates on me with his inner mind entered into me, he is regarded by me as the best Yogee.

NOTE—The Yogees attain to success But the mediator of the Supreme Lord with faith and devotion is the highest Yogee,

Thus ends Chapter VII called the Meditation Path.

SECOND PART

CHAPTER VII.
SUPREME KNOWLEDGE

(INTRODUCTION)

The first Part has treated of the action path on the analogy of the six Darshan Shastras

The second Part comprising of Chapters VII to XII teaches Brahma knowledge and devotion on the analogy of the Vedant or Shruti (including Vedas Upnishads and Aranyakas) Chapter VII to IX thus represent Yajur Veda, Chapter XX & XI Rig Veda and Chapter XII Sam Veda, which deal with the knowledge of the Supreme Lord, his highest nature, the creation, maintenance and destruction of the world, his character, power and greatness, The attainment of this knowledge and wisdom leads to his realization and devotion and thereby to bliss and salvation

The main points touched by this Chapter VII are—

- (1) Lower and higher nature (matter and spirit)
the cause of the creation of all beings,
- (2) Supreme Lord and his character as creator, destroyer, supporter life and soul of all,
- (3) The three qualities of nature, their character and how to overcome them,
- (4) Pleasure and pain the cause of delusion and the means of renouncing them,
- (5) Four class of sinners and their end,
- (6) Four class of divine worshippers and the wise the best of them,
- (7) Devotees of other gods also getting the objects of their desires from the Supreme Lord without knowing him and the reward of transitory value
- (8) The knower of the Supreme Lord, Atma, creation, and the realizer of beings, gods and sacrifices as his manifestations.

मे, भिन्ना, प्रकृतिः, अष्टधा ॥	my, separate, nature, eight- fold,

Translation—‘Earth, water, fire, air, sky, mind, intellect, and also ego’ thus—these are my separate eightfold natures.

NOTE—Earth (solid), water (liquid), fire (energy), air (gas) and sky (ether) called Mahabhutas (great elements), and mind (thinking faculty), intellect, (knowing faculty) and ego (self conscious faculty) called the antahkaran (internal organs) are the eightfold divisions of Nature (lower Prakriti)

C/o Mundak II—1—3. From him have come breath, mind, all senses, ether, air, fire, water and earth—the bodies of all ”

५-अपरेयमितस्त्वन्यां प्रकृतिं विद्धि मे पराम् ।

प्रभव, प्रलय, तथा ॥

} I, of whole, world, creator, destroyer, and

Translation—Consider thus “These are the wombs of all beings and I am the creator and destroyer of the whole world.”

NOTE—The universe is created by the Supreme Lord through the two fold nature the inferior (called matter, kshētra) and the superior (called Purush, self, Spirit, Intelligence, Kshetragya). Thus the

- Lord through his dual nature consisting of chit and achit (matter and spirit) is the source of the cosmos and also the cause of its dissolution which is brought about when the nature ceases to act.

C/o Vishnu I—2—24 “Two beings issue from the Supreme form of Vishnu—Pradhan (matter) and Purusha (the Soul) ”

Vishnu IV—5—39 “What was described by me as Prakriti and Purusha (in dual aspect as differentiated and undifferentiated) do merge in the Parmatma ”

Koorm II—6—9 “By the union of these two (Nature and Person) is created the world and by the evolution of Mahat (Budhi) etc my lustre is revealed.

Translation—Dhananjaya ! there is not any other higher than me, all this (world) is strung in me like the pearl-rows on a thread.

NOTE—The Lord is the highest of all and there is nothing superior to him. He pervades and sustains the whole world which, depends on him like a cluster of pearls held by a string.

C/o Mundak, II—2—5. “Know that one Atma alone in which the heaven, the earth, the sky and the atmosphere, mind and all life breaths are woven. He is the bridge of immortality”

Brihadarnyak, III—7—22. “Who is within and without the understanding, whom the understanding knows not, whose body is the understanding and who controls the understanding, that is thy immortals and dwelling in the heart Atma

Koorma, II—9—10. “In him all this and the whole world is strung and by knowing all this world he is liberated”

Which, and, also, pure, products, impure, dark, and, which

from me, alone, as, them, know, not, but, I, in them, they, in me,

Translation—Whatever are the products of Sattva, Rajas and also of Tamas, know them as from me alone. They are in me but not in them.

NOTE—The effects of the three qualities Purity, Impurity and Darkness are caused by the Lord's Maya and are subject to or depend on him while the Lord is not subject to them like the mortal beings. The Lord (Paramatma) is therefore called Nirgun while the Jivatma (embodied self) effected by Maya is called Sagun.

O/o Shwetashwatara, IV—10- “Know Maya (illusion) to be nature and the master of the Maya to be the great Lord By his form all this world is pervaded ”

Translation—All this world, deluded by the products formed of the three qualities does not know me as separate from these and imperishable.

NOTE—The whole world is caused by the Maya composed of the three qualities producing pleasure, desire and delusion and being

- affected by their products it fails to realize the Lord as distinct from the body and as imperishable.

Shwetashyatara, IV—9 ‘That from which the Lord of illusion, has created all this, the sacrifice with butter, the sacrifice Soma Juice, the vows, whatever is and whatever shall be and all that the Vedas speak of—the world, the other (self) is bound by illusion”

Bhagavat, I—7—5 “This Jiva deluded by the Maya regards the Soul which is distinct as composed of the three Gunas (body) and therefore attains to the delusion (rebirth) caused by it”

Bhagavat, III—26—5 “The Purusha on seeing the Maya the deluder of the knowledge and producer of beings forgets himself and regards the body as self.”

{ me, also, who, come,

} illusion, this, cross, they.

Translation—This divine Maya of mine formed of the qualities is truly difficult to cross. They who come to me also cross over this illusion.

NOTE—The Maya composed of the three gunas is the illusive power of the Lord. It can be overcome only by attainment of knowledge i. e. it is difficult to achieve liberation from the world and birth and that the only means of doing so is the attainment of knowledge.

C/o. Shwetashwatara, IV—10. "Know Maya to be Nature and the Master of Maya to be the great Lord. By his form all this world is pervaded".

Bhagavat (Mahatam) III—65. "It is difficult even for the gods to cross beyond the divine Maya what of men? It is for crossing that Maya that the Lord has fixed the weekly hearing of the Bhagavat."

	} wise, and, Arjuna

Translation—Arjuna ! four kinds of righteous men adore me, the distressed, the knowledge wishers, the seekers of objects and the wise, Arjuna.

NOTE—There are four classes of virtuous persons who worship and attain to the Lord ,

- (1) Distressed-seeking for liberation ,
- (2) Knowledge wisher---desirous to know the Lord

(3) Object seekers—pleasure hunters,

(4) Wise—knowers of the Lord,

Translation—The wise reaches me at the end of many births ; (knowing) thus “Vasūdeva is all.”

That great soul is hard to find.

NOTE—At the end of many births spent in devotion, the wise attains to the Lord by realizing that he is all in all. He becomes of the Lords’ nature which is hard to achieve

C/o Ken II—5. “If man knows Brahma in this life he is blessed, if he does not know him here he is ruined. The wise realizing the

CHAPTER VIII

SUPREME BRAHMA

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter teaches what is Brahma (Supreme Lord), Adhyatma (Soul) Karma (creation power or Nature), Adhvihoot (Universe) Adhidaiva (Heavenly path), Adhyagya (sacrificial deed) & final realization.

Whatever thought is uppermost in one's mind to that object he attains and his rebirth is shaped accordingly. Therefore one should ever meditate on the Lord so that he might be habituated to think of him at death time and attain to him. But this meditation should be performed with resignation, devotion and concentration.

Brahma is Supreme, primal, imperishable, omniscient, omnipresent and omnipotent, the creator and supporter of all. He is the Lord, eternal, subtle, the goal of all, and his realization leads to supreme bliss, liberation from rebirth and all pain.

The Soul is separate from the body which is perishable. It is of the character of the Supreme Lord.

Prakriti or Nature is evolved by the Lord at the beginning of a Kalp (age) and it then creates the beings who constitute the Universe, at the end of the age the beings are dissolved into nature which re-enters into the Lord. The creation and dissolution of the universe thus goes on from age to age.

Sacrifice and other actions are performed by beings either as worship of the Lord for his realization or with the desire for fruits. The performers of such actions attain to four different gods called light and dark, Sun and Moon, (Gods and fathers (knowledge and ignorance)). The one leads to the Lord and Salvation while the other to temporary enjoyment and then to bondage of rebirth.

The Yogee resigns the fruits of all actions and follows the light path and thereby attains to liberation and Supreme Reality.

रात्रि, आगमे, प्रलीयन्ते,	night, coming, are dissolved,,
तत्र, एव, अव्यक्त, संज्ञके ॥	in that, only, unmanifested,, called.

Translation—All manifested (beings) are created from the unmanifested (nature) on coming of the day and are dissolved verily in that called the unmanifested (nature) on the coming of the night.

NOTE—The universe is created through the intelligent nature (called Mahat Brahma) on the commencement of the Brahma day (awaking) and dissolved on the setting in of the Brahma night (Pralaya) by entering in the same nature.

C/o Markandey XLVI—8 "At the commencement of the day, he-the unborn cause of this fleeting world, the source of of all, unapproachable by thought, the supreme spirit, who is above all activities, awakes (creates all.)”

Vishnu I—3—20 “At the end of the day a dissolution of the universe occurs, when all the three worlds, earth and the regions of space are consumed with fire.”

Translation—Arjuna ? what time the departing
Yogees go to return and not to return that very time
I shall declare.

NOTE—The two knowledge and ignorance or salvation and bondage Paths are now going to be described

C/o Mahabharat, XII—17—15 “There are two paths, that of the Pitris and that of the gods They that perform sacrifices go by the Pitri path, while they that are for salvation go by the Devayan path ”

२४-अग्निर्ज्योतिरहः शुक्रः षण्मासा उत्तरायणम् ।

योगी, प्राप्य, निवर्तते ॥

Translation—The Yogee attaining the moon like light returns by these, smoke, night, dark fort-night, and six months of the southern solsticē.

NOTE—Persons performing action with desire for fruits after having temporary enjoyment fall into bondage ; smoke etc represent the developing states of ignorance or attachment to worldly objects called the Pitrī Path, the followers of which enjoy the fruits of action and then return to the world.

C/o Prashna I—9 “They who worship with sacrifice and gift etc as Dharma go to the lower world and return again Therefore the sages desirous of creation go by the southern path of the moon to the fathers ”

Chhandogya V—10—3 “The performers of sacrifices and meritorious deeds go to smoke, night, dark fortnight, six months of the southern solstic, Pitrī lok, akash and moon where they dwell to the finish and then return again to the world by the very way by which they had gone up.”

तस्मात्, सर्वेषु, कालेषु, therefore, in all, in time,

योग-युक्तः, भव, अर्जुन ॥ meditation-engaged, be Arjuna

Translation—Parth ! no Yogee knowing these paths is deluded. Therefore Arjuna be thou engaged in Yoga at all times

NOTE—The Yogee knowing light and dark or knowledge & ignorance paths does not engage in action with desire for fruit and fall into bondage

He engages in Yoga or meditation of the Lord and therefore acquires knowledge and attains to salvation

C/o. Koorm I—3—27 “Therefore who follows Koorma Yoga with cheerful mind and for pleasing of the Lord, he attains to that eternal goal."

२८-वेदेषु यज्ञेषु तपःसु चैव

विदित्वा, योगी, परं, स्थानं, उपैति, च, आद्यम् ॥ passess, that, all, this, knowing. Yogee, supreme, abode, goes, and, ancient

Translation—The fruit of virtue which is ascribed to Veda (reading), sacrifice, gift, and austerity, the Yogee passes all that by on knowing this and goes to the ancient supreme abode

NOTE—The Yogee abandons even the fruit of good actions as causing bondage and follows the wisdom path for liberation

Mundak I—2—7 "Unsafe are these boats of the form of sacrifice of 18 parts which express the lower works The unwise who delight in these as supreme, return again to old age and death"

Koorma I—10—22 "Knowledge is the sole means of crossing beyond the Sansar (world) and not austerity, gift or pilgrimage"

Thus ends chapter VIII called the Supreme Brahma.

CHAPTER IX.

SUPREME WISDOM

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter like chapter VII also teaches the knowledge and wisdom of the Supreme Lord. It deals with six main points—

- (1) The Supreme Lord is the creator, supporter and destroyer of the universe. The Nature which controls all beings is subject to his guidance and supervision.
- (2) The Lord is the life, soul, impeller, light goal of all beings, the rewarder of fruits and all in all.
- (3) The ignorant know not the Lord and therefore they attain to no success and ever remain subject to delusion and bondage.
- (4) Persons acting with attachment and desires attain to temporary success and again fall into bondage.
- (5) The wise worship the Lord without thinking of anything else and they attain to bliss and salvation.
- (6) One should meditate on the Lord by holding him supreme, with faith and devotion. Even a sinner by worshipping the Lord without thinking of another object is purified and attains to bliss.

Holding the Lord supreme and acting for his sake with devotion i.e. without attachment, leads to all success viz. Dharma (virtue) Kama (pleasure), Artha (wealth) and Moksha (liberation)

श्रीभगवानुवाच

१-इदं तु ते गुह्यतमं प्रवक्ष्याम्यनसूयवे ।

	I shall declare, artless, knowledge, wisdom-together, which knowing, shalt be freed, from evil.

THE LORD SAID

Translation—I shall declare for thee, thou artless, the secret knowledge together with wisdom, knowing which thou shalt be freed from evil.

NOTE—The supreme nature of the Lord, the realization of which causes devotion and liberation, is now going to be described.

CC. B G. VII-2

प्रत्यक्ष-अवगमं, धर्म्यं,	direct perception- realizable, religious, easy, to perform, imperishable.
सुसुखं, कर्तुं, अव्ययं ॥

Translation—This is sovereign knowledge, sovereign secret, purifying, supreme, realizable by direct perception, religious, easy to perform and imperishable.

NOTE—The supreme nature of Lord is a great knowledge and a secret science, purifier of delusion, quickly and easily attainable and of imperishable character.

अश्रद्धधानाः पुरुषा धर्मस्यास्य परन्तप ।
अप्राप्य मां निवर्तन्ते मृत्युसंसारवर्त्मनि ॥

धर्मस्य, अस्य, परन्तप ।
अप्राप्य, मां, निवर्तन्ते, मृत्यु-संसार-वर्त्मनि ॥

Translation—Parantap ! persons without faith in this knowledge, not attaining to me return to the path of the mortal world.

NOTE—Persons incapable of realizing the supreme nature of the Lord can not acquire devotion to him and therefore they can not attain to him and be freed from the bondage of birth.

C/o Kathballi II—3—4 "If any one fails to know it • before the destruction of the body, then in the creation of the world he is embodied again."

४-मया ततमिदं सर्वं जगदव्यक्तमूर्तिना ।

जगत्, अव्यक्त-मूर्तिना ।
मत्, स्थानि, सर्व-भूतानि,
न, च, अहं, तेषु अवस्थितः ॥

Translation—All this world is pervaded by my unmanifested form All beings dwell in me, but I am not dwelling in them

NOTE—The Lord pervades all the universe and thus the beings dwell in or are supported by the Lord He does not dwell in the beings i.e. is not dependant on beings at all

C/o Isha ! "All this whatever moves in the world is pervaded by the Lord. Enjoy his gift and do not desire the wealth of others."

Korm II—3—7 "All this moving and unmoving
 • world is pervaded by me All the beings dwell in me The Veda knowers know it "

Keorma II—6—3 "I am the Supreme Lord an of all the beings, also their middle and end dweller.

Again I am not the dweller in all "

CHAPTER X.

DIVINE GLORIES.

(INTRODUCTION)

Rig Veda I—164 declares that all the gods and natural elements are but the names and revelation of only one Lord who is all in all. This picture is well developed in this chapter which displays the higher nature of the supreme Lord and shows that the whole creation with its essence and excellence is simply his manifestation. He is the creator of all beings, their life, soul, origin, middle, end, abode, shelter, goal, the god of gods, the light of the lights, supreme of the supreme, riches of the rich, the wisdom of the wise, pleasantness of seasons, scourge of the wicked, victory of the righteous, inspiration of the devotees, the highest of all, the seed of the cosmos, the supporter and upholder of the whole universe. But being embodied man can know but little of the Lord and that only concerning creation, maintenance and dissolution of the body or earth and nothing more.

This knowledge and contemplation of the supreme Lord and his nature leads to his realization and devotion and bliss.

CHAPTER XI
UNIVERSAL FORM.

( INTRODUCTION )

This chapter deals with the divine universal form or the manifestation of the Lord's Supreme Nature as Creator, Preserver and Destroyer of all

In his creative aspect as Brahma the Lord is the origin of the whole universe with all its varieties and beings

Thus the universe forms his body with all the manifestation of gods, deities, sages, men, demons, and all else

In the Preserving aspect as Vishnu the Lord is the manifestation of all light, splendour and bliss and knowledge. He is eternal, indefinite, all knowing, all powerful, all pervading and as such he supports and maintains all beings

In his Destructive aspect as Mahesh, he destroys all as death. This is a terrible manifestation of Lord and as such strikes all with awe and terror. This destruction overtakes the beings in many terrible forms. Even gods and sages fear this destructive aspect. It overwhelms all persons both virtuous and vicious. But the good are filled with awe and worship the Lord while the evil fear and flee from his wrath. The destructive aspect being fearful, the Yogees meditate on the blissful (as Vishnu) manifestation of the Lord. But it is very difficult to realize his true nature. It can not be done of study, learning, austerity, gift and sacrifice etc

The Supreme Lord is attainable only by his special grace and devotion. One can therefore attain to him with Karma Yoga i.e. meditation without attachment and desires with faith and devotion.

Translation—Neither by the Vedas, nor by austerity, nor by gift, nor by sacrifice, can I be seen in such a way as thou hast seen me.

NOTE—This verse briefly repeats verse 48 that one can not realize the Lord without devotion and his special grace

C/o Kathballi I—2—23 “The self is not attainable by teaching the Vedas, neither by intelligence nor by great learning. It is attainable by him alone whom it chooses and then it reveals ‘himself.’”

Koorm II—4—2 “I am not capable of being known by men with austerities, nor with sacrifices but with supreme devotion.”

Translation—Arjuna ! he who performs actions for me, holding me supreme, is devoted to me, is freed from attachment and is without enmity with any being, comes to me.

NOTE—The Karma Yogee by performing actions without attachment for the sake of the Lord and for the good of the world, engaged in meditation of the Lord with faith and devotion attains to salvation

Thus ends chapter XI called the Universal Form.

CHAPTER XII DEVOTION PATH

(INTRODUCTION)<sup>c</sup>

This chapter treats of Devotion, the essence and the outcome of Brahma knowledge and realization described in chapters VII to XI. There are two classes of devōtees, one worshipping the manifested (sagun or qualified) aspect of the Supreme Lord and the other meditating on the unmanifested (Nirgun or unqualified), unperceivable unthinkable, abstract Supreme Reality. Both of these devotees attain to the Supreme Lord, but the unmanifested goal is rather hard for the embodied being to tread as it requires the renunciation of the world and of all the sense-objects.

For the yogee following the manifested aspect there are four ways for worshipping the Lord—

(a) Exclusive devotion, (b) yoga practice, (c) acting without attachment or for the sake of the Lord, (d) surrendering the fruit of action to the Lord as Brama resignation.

All such devotees easily attain to knowledge and salvation.

There are also four ways for worshipping the unmanifested aspect of the Supreme Lord—

(a) Restraint of all sense organs,
(b) Renunciation of all worldly objects,
(c) Equal thinking or steady mind,
(d) Acting for the good of the world.

The worshippers of the abstract and unqualified Reality are also devotees and attain to the same goal or salvation.

This Devotion path is the teaching of the Vedant, according to which the Supreme Lord is all in all and everything else is delusion which is dispelled by knowledge and realization of the pure nature of the Supreme Reality by worshipping him with yoga and devotion.

Translation—But they who worship ‘the imperishable unmanifest, invisible unthinkable, all-pervading, unchangeable, stable and eternal -

NOTE—This verse is connected with no. 4 and describes the unmanifested aspect of the Lord which can not be perceived by the senses but realized only by the intellect

C/o Isha 4. "He is stable and swifter than the mind, while staying he can not be overtaken by gods, going in advance or even by running
• The Payu breathes the breath in him."

Ken I—3 The eye goes not there, the speech goes not there, nor the mind, we understand him not and do not know how to explain him He is distinct from and higher than all known and unknown things We have heard of him from the ancient sages who have taught him to us."

कुर्वन्, सिद्धिं, अवाप्स्यसि ॥	doing, success, shalt attain.

Translation—If thou art unable even to practice (yoga), be the supreme holder of actions for me, for even by doing action for my sake, thou shalt attain to success.

NOTE—If one can not succeed in yoga practice, then he should perform actions without attachments i.e. for the sake of the Lord regarding him as Supreme and the impeller of all actions and thereby attain to salvation This is the Lord Supreme path.

C/o Bhagavat, XI—11—22. 'If you have not the strength to make the mind stable in Brahma then resign all actions unto me by indifference "

११-अथैतदप्यशक्तोऽसि कर्तुं मद्योगमाश्रितः ।

त्यागात्, शान्तिः, अनन्तरं ॥
	from renunciation, bliss, not distant

Translation—For knowledge is better than practice, realization is greater than knowledge, from realization is the renunciation of action fruits, and from renunciation bliss is not distant

NOTE—This verse points out the result of the last verse (Brahma resignation) i. e. the practice of mind control leads to knowledge, knowledge to realization, realization to surrender of action fruits and the surrender of action fruits to bliss or liberation. In other words resignation of action fruits leads to salvation

१३-अद्वेष्टा सर्वभूतानां मैत्रः करुण एव च ।

Translation—And the devotees holding me supreme who with faith follow this immortal teaching as stated (above, they are much dear to me

NOTE—All the yogees worshipping the Lord with faith and devotion as taught in this chapter are his devotees and attain to the supreme goal.

CHAPTER XIII

MATTER AND SPIRIT.

(INTRODUCTION)

The First Part comprising Chapters 1 to 6 deals with Karma yoga on the analogy of the six Darshan Shastras

The Second Part comprising Chapters 7 to 12 treats of knowledge and wisdom of the Supreme Lord, and his devotion on the analogy of the Vedant

The Third Part comprising Chapters 13 to 18 teaches the distinction of the higher and lower nature (body and soul or matter and spirit) and how to cross beyond the one and attain to the other on the analogy of the Dharma Shastras (Itihasas & Puranas).

In other words, the first Part of the Gita deals with Philosophy, the second Part with Religion and the third Part with Ethics

This Third Part shows that the Body (matter) is perishable and composed of the three qualities of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas causing pleasure, pain and delusion and that the Soul (spirit) is eternal, imperishable and supreme. The crossing of the one and the realization of the other leads to salvation and Supreme Goal

The Soul is the higher nature and it is the greatness and power of the Lord who is all in all. The body is the lower nature which constitutes maya or delusion. It is dispelled by knowledge and realization of the true nature of the Soul

The main points treated of by Chapter XIII are as follows:—(1) The classes and modification of nature (matter), (2) The marks or characteristics of wisdom, (3) The character of the soul, (4) The combination of body and soul, (5) The relation and characteristics of the body and soul combined, (6) How to cross beyond the body (matter) and attain to soul,

Translation—It has been sung by many sages separately by various ( vedic ) chants and also in Brāhma Sūtra discourses full of decisive reasoning

NOTE—The Vedas including Upanishads composed by great many sages are full of the knowledge of the soul and universe—the kshetra and kshetragya. The Brahma Sūtra or Vedant of Badrāyana Vyāsa also deals with the same subject logically in short aphorisms, which conclusively prove that the Supreme Soul is all in all.

C/o Rig Veda, IV—57 We obtain through the Lord of the kshetra as ever through a friend what nourishes our cows and horses ”

Vishnu, II—13—70 “The soul is pure, imperishable, tranquil, void of qualities, being distinct from Prakriti ”

Translation—Who by the wisdom eye know the distinction between the body and soul and being released from nature, they reach the Supreme.

NOTE—Those who realize the true character and difference between body and soul and how to be released from material nature (body) they attain to the Supreme State.

Thus ends chapter XIII called Matter & Spirit .

CHAPTER XIV.

QUALITIES OF NATURE.

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter treats of the three qualities of nature, their characteristics, functions and effect, how to overcome them and attain to moksha,

2. The world is evolved by the activities of the qualities (gunas)-Sattva (Pure), Rajas (impure) and Tamas (dark) constituting the Maya (Nature) The character of sattva is light and happiness, of Rajas activity and desire and of Tamas, delusion

3 These characteristics of the gunas forming the body are determined by the past karmas But there is always one particular guna predominating over the other two and exerting its own influence. Those possessed of Sattva attain to heaven, of Rajas to human birth and of Tamas to the lower state as animals and plants.

4 These gunas can be overcome by abandonment of attachment, renunciation of pleasure, pain and delusion, and steadiness of mind and devotion to the Lord

Then one realizes the Self and attains to the Supreme Reality and Moksha

	} in body, embodied, imperish, } able

Translation—Arjuna ! the qualities born of nature, Sattva, Rajas, and Tamas thus bind the imperishable embodied in the body.

NOTE—The world is evolved by the activities of the qualities (gunas) constituting the Maya. They govern the relation of the Lord with the universe and the form in which he manifests himself

Clo Bhagavat I—2—30 “The Lord who is free from qualities, being, nonbeing, creation, destruction, world at first with Maya composed of three gunas”

Koorma II—7—26 “Sattva, Rajas and Tamas thus called the three qualities, Sattva is the unmanifested Prakriti as darkness is the equilibrium”

	} it, binds, Arjuna

Translation—But know Tamas as born of ignorance and the deluder of the embodied (self). Arjuna ! it binds (the embodied) with inertness, dullness and sleep.

NOTE—The character of Tamas is to delude the self and produce inertness, dulness and death

C/o Mahabharat XII—194—33. “That state again which is allied to delusion and error, and in consequence of which one knows not what to do, which is unascertainable and unknown, should be regarded as belonging to the quality of Tamas”

Mahabharat XII—194—36 “Disgrace, delusion, error, sleep, stupidity, that overtake one through illuck are the various properties of Tamas”

Purity, happiness, produces, impurity, activity, Arjuna, knowledge, enveloping, and,
darkness,
inertness, produces, only.

Translation—Arjuna ! Sattva produces happiness, Rajas activity and Tamas by enveloping knowledge produces only inertness.

NOTE—The function of Sattva is to produce mental happiness, that of Rajas restlessness and that of Tamas inertness or delusion

C/o Manu S XII—26 “It is thought that Sattva is knowledge, Rajas desire, and Tamas darkness and that such is the nature of the gunas which pervade and cling to all beings’

Mahabharat III—212—4 “Tamas is characterised by illusion. Rajas incites (to action) & Sattva is of great grandeur”

Mahabharat, XII—194—30 “The quality of Sattva brings happiness, the quality of Rajas produces sorrow and the quality of Tamas causes only delusion”

तमः, सत्त्वम्, रजः, तथा ॥

Impurity, exists, Arjuna,

Impurity, purity, darkness, also, darkness, purity, impurity, so

Translation—Arjuna ! Sattva exists by predominating over Rajas and Tamas, Tamas (by predomi-nating ) over Rajas and Sattva and so Rajas over Sattva and Tamas also.

NOTE—When the three gunas or qualities of nature are equipoised, there is no manifestation of the world. It is only when there is disturbance of these qualities that there is creation and its activity. There is, however, always one particular quality in excess or in preponderance and exercises its effect to the exclusion of the other two.

C/o Manu S XII—25 “When one of these qualities wholly predominates in a body, then it makes the embodied imminently distinguished for that quality”

Translation—The Sattva dwellers go upward, the Rajasee dwell in the middle, and the dwellers of the course of evil quality of Tamas go downward.

NOTE—The men possessed of Sattva nature by acquiring knowledge & virtue go to heaven, those of Rajas nature by following desires are born in the human world, while the Tamas ones owing to delusion and ignorance attain the lowest state of beasts etc.

C/o. Manu S XII—40 "Those endowed with Sattva reach the state of gods, those with Rajas the state of men, and those with Tamas ever sink to the condition of beasts. This is the three-fold course of transmigration of souls."

Mahabharat XIV—36—25 "The men of evil conduct always exhibit the indication of their acts and sink in darkness. Their course is always downwards."

Bhagavat XI—25—21 "Persons possessed of Sattva quality attain to the high world of Brahma, those of Rajas attain to human body, while those of Tamas are born in the lowest wombs"

CHAPTER XV

SUPREME PERSON

( INTRODUCTION )

This Chapter depicts the character of Nature (matter) and Purusha (spirit) and their distinction. The world is like the Aswattha tree and grows by attachment to action and enjoyment of sense objects. It is by crossing or overcoming it by abandonment of attachment and desires that one can attain to knowledge and liberation from all pain and supreme goal.

The embodied soul is a reflection of the Supreme Lord and controller of the mind and senses and enjoyer of sense objects and carries the subtle sense organs with it in its transmigration from one body to another. The soul is perceivable only by the wise with exertion and meditation and it is the cause of all light, heat, energy, knowledge and wisdom and it supports all beings.

All beings and things of the world are perishable and the soul is immortal. But the Lord is higher than even the soul and is called the Supreme Soul (Paramatma) and as such pervades and maintains the three worlds. The knower of the true character of the Supreme Soul (Person) is the doer of his duty and attains to him.

श्री भगवानुवाच

छन्दांसि, यस्य, पर्णानि, यः, तं, वेद, सः, वेद-वित् ॥	chants, whose, leaves, who, it, knows, he, Veda - knower

THE LORD SAID.

Translation—They say that the imperishable Aswatth (tree) has root above and branches below, the chants (Vedas) are whose leaves and he who knows it is the Veda knower.

NOTE—Here the imperishable Aswatth represents the beginningless universe, the root above—Brahma the creator, the branches below—the creatures, the leaves—the vedic rituals which protect and glorify it like the leaves of a tree its knower i. e. the eternal universe is like the Aswatth tree with its root above in Brahma, branches below in beings, with leaves of the Vedic acts and its knower is the Brahma knower

C/o Kathballi, II—3—1, "The Aswatth tree has root above, branches below 'It is pure Brahma and it is also called immortal. All the universe rests in it and none goes beyond it. 'This verily is that (Atma)'"

२-अधश्चाध्वं प्रसृतास्तस्य शाखा

अनुसंततानि, कर्म-अनुबन्धीनि मनुष्य-लोके ॥ downward, and, roots, stretched, action-bound,

in human-world

Translation—Its branches are spread up and down, grown by qualities and blossomed by objects and the under-roots bound by actions are stretched in the human world

NOTE—The up and down branches are the inhabitants of the three (upper, middle and lower) realms, the tree (world) grows by the gunas constituting the Maya and it blossoms (flourishes) by the sense objects and its secondary roots are caused by action bondage i. e. the tree of Maya is continued by attachment to action caused by the gunas and to the pleasure and pain of sense objects .

३-न रूपमस्येह तथोपलभ्यते

मूलं, असंग-शस्त्रेण,		rooted, by unattachment-
दृढेन, छित्वा ॥		weapon,
		by strong, having cut

Translation—Its form is not here found as such and it has no end, no origin and no stability. Having cut the firmly rooted Aswath with the strong weapons of unattachment—

NOTE—This verse is connected with No 4 and shows that the people do not understand the nature of the tree of Maya having no reality.

One should be freed from it by abandonment of attachment with action and renunciation of desires and aversion.

C/o, Mahabharat XIV—47—14 “Cutting and piercing that tree with the sword of knowledge, the man of wisdom abandoning the bonds which are made of attachment and which cause birth, old age and death freeing himself from Inness myness without doubt is liberated”

४-ततः पदं तत्परिमार्गितव्यं

तत्, धाम, परमम्, मम् ॥		that, abode, supreme, my

Translation—The sun illumines that not, nor the moon, nor the fire, and to which going they return not, that is my supreme abode.

NOTE—The supreme goal is the highest abode and the life and soul of all and there is no return from it to the world of bondage again

C/o Mundak II-2-10 “The sun shines not there, nor the moon nor the stars The lighting shines not there nor the fire. As he shines everything shines after him All this is illumined by his light (Kathballi II-2-15, Svetashvatra VI-14)”

Atmabodh—61.

- “He is Brahma by whom all things are illumined, whose light causes the sun & all human bodies to shine but who is not manifest by their light”.

B G XIII—17.

	}	nature-dwelling, draws.

Translation—Only a particle of mine being the eternal life (soul) in the world of life, draws the (five) senses with mind the sixth, dwelling in nature.

NOTE—The Jivatma or the life self is a reflection of the Supreme Lord himself. It assumes a body through delusion or Maya and thus it seems to control and move the sense organs.

C/o Rig Veda VI—47—18. “The souls stand as so many reflections with regard to the different forms of the Lord”

द-शरीरं यद्वामोति यद्वाप्युत्क्रामतोऽश्वरः ।

Translation—What body the Lord (self) takes and what also he leaves, he goes taking these like the wind (carrying) fragrance from the (flower) beds

NOTE—The subtle senses and the mind appear to accompany the soul in its transmigration

C/o Brahmasutra III—1—1.

“The soul departs from the body and goes to another always enveloped in the elements”.

Atmabodh—12 “The subtle body is not formed of gross material but is united with life breaths, with mind, intellect, ten organs and is the instrument of sensation ”

६-श्रोत्रं चक्षुः स्पर्शनं च रसनं घ्राणमेव च ।

	} object, enjoys.

Translation—And dwelling in the ear, the eye, the touch (skin), taste (tongue) and smell (nose) also the mind, it enjoys the (sense) objects.

NOTE—The soul seems to control the mind and the senses of perception and enjoys the objects.

C/o Ken 1—2 “The knower of what is ear of the ear, mind of the mind, speech of the speech, breath of the breath, eye of the eye, on leaving this world of death becomes immortal”

Mahabharat III—181—25 “The Atma taking itself to a corporeal tenement and manifesting itself through the sense organs, becomes duly cognisant of perceptible objects and hence the senses, the mind and the intellect assisting the soul in its perception of objects are called means”

Mahabharat XII—194—12

“The soul acting through the senses, the mind and the intelligence as the 7th, all of which are inactive and without self c, discovers the objects like a lamp shedding its rays through an aperture in the covering”

Bhagvat I—3—33

“The Lord entering the beings through objects, senses and mind enjoys the qualities through Maya composed of the Gunas”

पश्यन्ति, ज्ञान-चक्षुषः ॥
	} see, wisdom-eyed.

Translation—The deluded affected by the gunas see it not, but the wisdom eyed see it enjoying, dwelling, and also leaving (the body)—

NOTE—Though the soul is nearest and comes most easily within the range and consciousness in a variety of functions, still it is not seen by the deluded for lack of knowledge. It is seen by the wise

becomes visible only by the light of the mind's • lamp ” •

Translation—The exerting yogees see him dwelling in the heart, while the impure-hearted and unthoughtful see him not though exerting

NOTE—The wise yogees by exerting viz Yam, Niyam,
Dhyan, Dharma, Asan, Samadhi, Pranayam and Pratihara succeed in realizing the Supreme Lord while the deluded and ignorant even by exertion fail to do so “

C/o Kathballi I—2—24 ‘One who has not ceased from wicked conduct, who is not tranquil, who is not self controlled, and whose mind is not at rest does not obtain it even by knowledge ”.

this, knowing, wise becomes, doer-duty, and-
Ajuna

Translation—Ajuna ! thus the most secret scripture has been declared by me, and on knowing this, Bharata ! ( one ) becomes wise and the doer of duty.

C/o Manu S XII—93 “This self knowledge is fulfilment of the birth especially for a Brahmana, for by attaining to this does the twiceborn become the accomplisher of all duties and not otherwise”

Koorm II—5—17 “Seeing the Shiva and Vishnu forms of that Lord, Brahma knower sages become the doers of duty to themselves”.

Koorm II—6—52 “Thus that Supreme knowledge has been declared to you by me By knowing it, the man is liberated from the bondage of birth in the world”

Thus ends chapter XV called the Supreme Person.

CHAPTER XVI.

GOOD AND EVIL

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter compares the godly and ungodly or good and evil nature of men. The one is the Sattva (good) nature of the wise as described in chapters II, VII, IX, XII, XIII and XIV and again sketched in the first three verses of this chapter. The other is the Rajas and Tamas (evil) nature of those addicted to desires and aversions as touched here and there in chapters II, III, VII, IX and after briefly noticing in verse 4 it is again depicted at length in verse 7 to 20. Persons of this nature are blinded by desires and passion, attached to egoism and pleasures of the world and are deluded by ignorance. They fall into bondage and ever sink into lower and lower state. They are enemies of themselves and of other beings of the world.

Persons of such evil nature can raise themselves and attain to salvation by abandoning of desires and aversion and performing the duty as taught by Scriptures. But those given to desires can not attain to any success.

Translation—Therefore the scripture is thy guide in deciding what to do and what not to do. knowing the scripture declared ordinances, thou shouldst perform action here.

NOTE—One should ever follow the path sketched out by the scriptures as this leads to salvation. Thus ends Chapter XVI called Good and Evil.

CHAPTER XVII.

FAITH

(INTRODUCTION)

This chapter deals with the character of Faith in Daiva or destiny which is nothing but nature or the inherited tendency of one's past Karmās (called Prarābh). They are of the three qualities of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas, (Pure, Impure and Dark) As are one's actions so is his nature and destiny (faith in Daiv) One by exerting himself in accordance with the teachings of scriptures achieves success and by disregarding scriptures and surrendering to desires by faith in destiny (i. e., reliance on destiny), he ever remains deluded and ever sinks lower and lower.

Food, sacrifice, and gift are the righteous acts enjoined by the scriptures They are of three qualities Sattva, Rajas, and Tamas and lead to corresponding results.

Persons performing these acts by meditating on the Supreme Aum Brahma attain to knowledge realization Others by performing these acts and meditating on Tat (that) with renunciation of desires attain to Moksha or liberation Others again by performing these acts and praying to the Lord for happiness attain to happiness But the performers of these acts without faith in the Lord attain to no success either in this world or the next one.

	untrue. thus, is called, Arjuna, not, and, that, in death, not, here.

Translation—Partha ! What is sacrificed, given, austerity done and (action) performed without faith is called Asat. That is neither true here nor on death (hereafter).

NOTE—But performance of sacrifice etc (Shastric acts) without faith in the Lord is no good and of any use in this or the next world. There must be both faith in God and knowledge of the Scriptures.

Thus ends chapter XVII called the Nature and Faith.

CHAPTER XVIII.

LIBERATION PATH

( INTRODUCTION )

The last five chapters having shown the character of and distinction between matter and spirit, the present chapter deals with the essence & nature of renunciation (Sanyas or Tyag) as a means of attaining Moksha by performing one's duty. Towards the end of the book the whole discourse on Karma Yoga is summed up and followed by an eulogy of the Bhagvat Gita.

Renunciation of action is impractical and sinful, one can only abandon attachment, desire and pleasure which cause bondage or delusion. Action, cause, agency, knowledge, intellect, steadiness and happiness are the various elements of renunciation and each of them is of three fold nature, viz Sattva, Rajas and Tamas.

It is by performance of one's duty that one acquires perfection and then by practising unattachment, control of mind and abandonment of desires and pleasures that he attains to bliss and Supreme Goal. Of the many Paths for attaining to the Lord, the devotion Path is the best and surest way of attaining salvation. Gita is the supreme essence of Brahma Vidya. Its reciters, expounders and hearers are all blessed and become great devotees of the Lord and attain to Moksha.
